

11 INDICTED BY GRAND JURY ON MONDAY

Eleven indictments were handed up to the Adams County Court by the August grand jury when it concluded its deliberations at 5:48 o'clock Monday evening. Three had been returned at noon.

Among the defendants against whom true bills were returned are: R. J. Neiderer, McSherrytown, fraudulent conversion; Cramer "Bink" Eyer, Woodboro, Md., larceny of a pocketbook; Gregorio Gomez, 256 S. Washington St., aggravated assault and battery; Edward R. Benatti, Philadelphia, burglary and larceny and a morals charge; Arthur Topper, Center Square, New Oxford, fraudulent conversion; John David Carr, Harrisburg, cheating by false pretense; Bernard Gebhart, 18 E. High St., New Oxford, three morals charges involving seven counts; William E. Rudisill, Gettysburg R. 3, assault and battery; Raymond S. Williams, rear of 219 S. Washington St., burglary and larceny; and Frederick W. H. Myers, Gettysburg R. 1, a three-count morals charge.

Defer Inspection
Because of the late hour at which the determination of cases for trial next week was completed, the grand jury was not asked to make the usual inspection of the county buildings.

The court announced the appointment of Edward Wilt, 344 Third St., Hanover, as a Conewago school district director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Francis Livesberger on June 21.

Three petitions had been filed with the court, Wilt's and others for Lester Streig and William H. Menges. The court, noting that all three were very acceptable men, checked the registrations of the men in order to have a base for decision and gave the nod to Wilt, a Democrat, to fill the unexpired term of Livesberger, who also is a Democrat. The other two are Republicans.

HARRY D. NOBLE OF NEW OXFORD DIES ON MONDAY

Harry Daniel Noble, 60, 111 Lincolnway West, New Oxford, a founder of the New Oxford Aluminum Co., died Monday night at 9:35 o'clock at the Baltimore Veterans' Hospital where he had been a patient for the last 11 months. He had been in failing health for the last four years.

A native of York County, he was a son of the late Daniel C. and Alberta J. (Shue) Noble and was a member of the Emanuel Reformed Church, Hanover, and the New Oxford Fire Co.

He was a veteran of World War I, serving from June 26, 1918, to March 30, 1919. He and a son, Charles M. Noble, Hanover, started the New Oxford Aluminum Co. in 1945. In 1953, because of declining health, the elder Mr. Noble retired from the business and his son took over full management. The elder Mr. Noble at that time moved to Clark's Dale, Ariz., where he resided until a year ago when he returned to New Oxford.

His first wife, the former Ruth E. Livingston, preceded him in death in 1943.

Surviving are his second wife, the former Rehea Werner; three children, Charles M. Noble, Hanover; Mrs. Harold J. Miller, York; and John T. Noble, at home; five grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Effie Shauk, Hanover; Mrs. Morris Rhodes, Hanover; Mrs. Jessie Tracy, Manchester, R. D., and Mrs. Walter Stonester, Hanover R. 4, and three brothers, Richard J. and Ralph L. Noble, both of Hanover, and Austin F. Noble, Baltimore.

18 Registered At Bendersville Monday

Eighteen voters, 15 Republicans and three Democrats, were registered by the traveling registrars at Bendersville Monday.

So far the registrars, touring the county to permit residents to register to vote in the Presidential election, have signed 296 persons, 197 Democrats, 92 Republicans and seven non-partisan. Today the registrars were at Cashtown. Wednesday they will be at Hunters-town; Thursday, Littlestown, Friday, East Berlin; Saturday, Biglerville; next Monday at Bonneauville and next Tuesday at Hamp-ton.

THREE TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS ON WET HIGHWAYS

Monday's rain caused state policemen from the local barracks to have their busiest day, as far as auto accidents were concerned, in more than a week.

They were called first at 9:45 o'clock Monday morning to a point seven-tenths of a mile west of Biglerville on the Arendtsville Rd. There they found that Harry Melvin Walter, 41, Baltimore, had been headed west when his car skidded on the wet highway at a curve and the rear of the Walter car struck the front of an east bound auto operated by George Heller, 65, Biglerville R. 2 farmer.

Damage was estimated at $100 to Walter's car and $300 to Heller's. There were no injuries.

Two In Afternoon
At 12:15 o'clock Monday afternoon one mile south of York Springs on the Gettysburg Rd., the officers found as Donald Bruce Search, 16, Silver Springs, Md., had been traveling north, his car going up a hill, had rammed into the rear of a tractor-trailer being driven north by Jesse L. Jenkins, 38, Warsaw R. 2, N. C. Damage was estimated at $300 to the car and $40 to the trailer. There were no injuries.

Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock the officers were called again to investigate a rear-end collision. At Mummasburg they found that Ted Cuniff, 45, Lancaster, headed south toward Gettysburg had halted on the highway. The auto of Cyril Joseph Thomas, 23, 256 S. Washington St., also headed south, behind the Cuniff vehicle, had not stopped quickly enough. Damage was $50 to Thomas car, $25 to Cuniff's and again there were no injuries.

First Lt. Robert Robert F. Neiderer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon E. Neiderer, McSherrytown, recently was graduated from the military medical orientation course at the Army Medical School, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. The course stressed medical service in combat.

The class was composed of newly commissioned officers. Lieutenant Neiderer has been assigned to Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md.

The lieutenant was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh School of Dentistry in 1956 and is a member of Delta Sigma Delta fraternity.

FIRE DAMAGES CAR

A small fire broke out in the automobile of an "unidentified man" at the corner of Elm and Linden Avenues in McSherrytown. Damage to the car was estimated at about $50 by the McSherrytown Fire Company which answered the call.

IS FINED $100

John W. Spangler, McSherrytown, was fined $100 and costs in York County court Monday on a charge of operating a car while his license was suspended.

Indian Says Dulles' Plan On Suez Will Be Rejected

By LYNN HEINZERLING
LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three made a concentrated drive for Asian and Middle Eastern support of their proposal for international operation of the Suez Canal today, but India's V. K. Krishna Menon warned that Egypt would reject the plan.

Menon, who visited President Nasser in Cairo before coming to the conference, told a press conference the Western plan was "entirely impracticable."

The Indian envoy yesterday put a compromise proposal before the 22-nation conference called to deal with the Suez dispute. The Indian plan would give Egypt full control of the 103-mile waterway, with an international body to act only in a consultative and advisory capacity.

Menon said the plan presented by Secretary of State Dulles — for an international board to operate the canal with Egyptian participation—in effect would internationalize the present canal company. Nasser announced July

Nixon And Herter

Gov. Christian Herter, left, of Massachusetts, talks with Vice President Richard Nixon in San Francisco hotel lobby Monday. Harold Stassen has waged a virtual one-man campaign to have Nixon replaced by Herter as President Eisenhower's running mate. Herter is scheduled to put Nixon's name before convention for renomination. He has refused to have his name placed in nomination against Nixon. (AP Wirephoto)

Top Flight Delegate Leaders Are Invited To Call On Ike In San Francisco Late Today

By JACK BELL
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—President Eisenhower comes to town today to put his personal touch on a Republican convention geared to renominate him and Vice President Nixon.

In advance of his scheduled arrival late in the day, leaders of key state delegations reported they had received telephoned invitations from the White House to call on him.

Some said they felt certain there would be no discussion of Harold E. Stassen's languishing campaign to dump Nixon from the ticket.

In fact, a surge of Nixon strength among delegates made it appear that the time had passed when the vice president could be sidetracked by anything other than direct presidential word that Eisenhower didn't want him.

Delighted With Nixon
No one expected that. Eisenhower has said he would be delighted to have Nixon on any ticket with him but has not excluded the possibility that he might be satisfied with another candidate.

Property Transfers NINE COUPLES GET LICENSES

The following property deeds have been recorded in the office of the register and recorder: Martin J. and Dorothy H. Showers, Aspers R. 1, sold to Robert E. and Ruth M. Wampler, Biglerville R. 1, for $5,000 two properties in Menallen Twp.

R. L. Crouse and Esther O. Crouse, Littlestown, sold to Robert L. Jr. and Peggy D. Crouse, Littlestown, for $1,000 a property in Germany Twp.

RIDING CLUB PICNIC

YORK SPRINGS INTERSECTION PROJECT OK'D

Pennsylvania's first highway project under the federal road program, to eliminate the hazardous York Springs intersection, was approved by the State Highways Department yesterday for contractors' bids Sept. 14.

It comprises a 2.8 mile York Springs by-pass to the east of that Adams County community, and will be constructed as a four-lane divided limited access expressway to meet federal specifications for the new interstate highway system.

The four-lane road will run from about three-fourths of a mile south of Deardorffs Mills, to about 2½ miles north of Heidlersburg. A bridge will carry it over Route 94, (the Hanover road) east of the present intersection of the two highways which has long been regarded as a hazard.

Hearing Last Week
At a public hearing on the proposed project in York Springs last Wednesday 13 of 20 witnesses said they favored the by-pass location for the new highway. Such hearings are required on all new projects in the interstate system.

The York Springs by-pass is the first of hundreds of such projects which will be required to skirt communities to meet the limited access standards of the interstate highway plan and qualify for federal aid.

On the same date the state will also receive bids for the construction of a bridge to carry Route 641 over Big Spring Creek at Newville, Cumberland County.

BASEHORE ON NATIONAL TV

Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, E. Middle St., Adams County's delegate to the Republican National Convention in San Francisco, found himself briefly on a nation-wide television broadcast Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

National Broadcasting Company telecaster "Red" Muller, on the convention floor, "cornered" Basehore as the delegate from President Eisenhower's home district and conversed briefly with the local man before the NBC television cameras.

Among other questions, Muller asked Basehore how Pennsylvania stood on the vice presidency. Basehore, who had announced himself as both an Eisenhower and Nixon "man" before leaving here for San Francisco, answered that "as of last night" the Pennsylvania delegation was "100 per cent" behind Nixon.

Asked how Eisenhower's health was considered locally, Basehore responded "the last time I saw him, several weeks ago, he looked fairly good."

Literature Features AAA Headquarters

Literature featuring the new AAA headquarters of the Gettysburg Motor Club on Lincoln Square is now being distributed to Club patrons. The facilities were recently redecorated and placed under the management of George W. Miller, who was for 29 years manager of the Wilkensburg Automobile Club.

In addition to handling the personal needs of AAA members in the community, the Gettysburg Motor Club takes care of thousands of tourists who visit Gettysburg and tour the local Civil War Shrines. The Club has an important part in building goodwill for the community and urging tourists return to the Battlefield.

Two Cyclists Hurt In Sunday Mishap

Two motorcyclists were treated Sunday evening at the Waynesboro Hospital for injuries after the machine on which they were riding blew a tire and overturned on the Sunshine Trail section of Route 16.

IN CRASH MONDAY

A car being driven north on the Westminster Rd., two miles south of Hanover, skidded and collided with an oncoming truck Monday morning. No one was hurt. State police said the car was driven by Edwin J. Kenyon, Westminster, and the truck by Larry Kline, 16, Littlestown.

VFW TO MEET

Post 153, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at its home on E. Middle St. Commander Raymond Strohm announced today a home association meeting will follow the post session.

Sesqui Committee To Meet Tonight

Further plans for Gettysburg's Sesquicentennial will be outlined at a meeting of representatives of all local organizations this evening at 8 o'clock at the engine house, E. Middle St.

Burgess William G. Weaver, chairman of the Sesquicentennial committee, urged that representatives of all local organizations be present. "We hope to make what will amount to final plans this evening and we need the advice and help of everyone," Weaver said.

SCHOOL BAND TO PARADE FORELKS AT CONVENTION

The Gettysburg High School Senior Band will lead the state convention parade of the Elks in Reading, on Wednesday at 2 p.m. About 75 members of the band will make the Reading trip leaving Gettysburg at 9:15 a.m. by bus.

Band members will have lunch and change into uniform at St. James Lutheran Church, Fifth and Chestnut Sts., Reading, their headquarters while at the convention. After marching in the parade the bandmen will return by bus.

Because of the parade there will be a special rehearsal of the Senior Band this evening from 7 to 8:30 o'clock in preparation for the event. All band members, majorettes and color guard should attend. Final schedules and arrangements will be announced at that time.

Elementary Rehearsal

There will be no rehearsal of the junior band this week but the elementary band will meet Thursday from 7:30-9 p.m. in the high school band room.

General chairman of the Reading Elks convention is R. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, a member of the Gettysburg Lodge. Attending from the local lodge as delegates to the convention are James Reagle, William Kuhn, and Russell Kane. Warren Dunn and Hubert Gallagher are also attending the convention.

This marks the third occasion on which the High School band has participated in an Elks convention. Five years ago the band traveled to Williamsport and three years ago they paraded at Harrisburg.

County Soldier Leaves For Europe

Pvt. Russell F. Klinedinst, whose wife, Mary, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klinedinst, live at York Springs, R. 2, left Monday for Europe as part of Operation Gyro-scope, the Army's unit rotation plan. Klinedinst is a member of the 8th Infantry Division, which has been stationed at Fort Carson, Colo., and is replacing the 9th Infantry Division in Germany.

Klinedinst, a cook in Headquarters and Service Company of the division's 41st Tank Battalion, entered the Army last February and completed basic training at Fort Carson. He was graduated from North Adams Joint High School in 1950.

LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

Cpl. William Holtzworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Holtzworth, West High St., left Sunday for New York City from where he will sail for a two-year tour of duty in the U. S. Air Force. Holtzworth, a graduate of Delone High School, McSherrytown, has been in the Air Force a year and completed a furlough in Gettysburg Sunday.

AUTHORITY TO SELL TIMBER IN MOUNTAINS

The Gettysburg Municipal Authority may have sold 144,330 board feet of timber off the water company's land in Franklin and Hamiltonian Twp. Monday evening, but the members of the authority board won't know until the engineers finish using their slide rules on a bid.

The authority had sought bids for 566 trees, 247' of them red oaks, 124 tulip poplars and the others including hemlocks, beech, birch, black locust, elms and white pines. The bid, submitted by Robert E. Eicholtz, of the Biglerville R. D. sawmill firm of Eicholtz Brothers, followed the custom of listing a number of prices, depending upon what will be gotten from the trees when they are converted into lumber.

The board turned the bid over to the engineers and asked them to figure out what the amounts are in dollars. If the bid figure is "good," the timber will be sold. Members of the board said the decision to sell some of the timber off the woodlands owned by the water company was based on conservation measures. The older, and dead trees are to be removed to make room for new growth and cut down fire hazards, and thus keep the woods green permanently at the headwaters of Marsh Creek, which supplies Gettysburg with its water.

Had Trees Marked

Forester James F. Heagy was retained to examine the forests and mark the trees to be cut. The authority also, at its meeting Monday evening in the offices of the law firm of Bulleit and Bulleit in The First National Bank building, voted to ask bids for installation of a new "high-low" pump at the pumping station south of town.

Employees of the Blosser Baby Shoe Co., 318 West Middle St., are now covered by a group insurance plan, it was announced today by David C. Blosser Jr., of the firm.

Underwritten by The Travelers Insurance Company, the contract provides employees participating in the plan with life insurance benefits. Coverage is extended to all personnel, premiums being paid by the employer.

Peace, Prosperity, Progress Theme Of GOP Keynote Speech

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Arthur E. Langlie of Washington has set the keynote of the Republican National Convention: "Peace, prosperity and progress."

Langlie, giving the convention's stemwinding speech late yesterday, told delegates: "We are here to pledge to the American people four more years of honest, efficient administration... four more years of our crusade for a finer America in a better world under the competent, steadfast, forthright leadership of Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Langlie denounced the Democrats as corrupt and divided. He warmly praised the Republicans as bringers of "peace, prosperity and progress."

Hit Dem. Keynote
The 56-year-old governor, who is running for the U.S. Senate in Washington against Democratic Sen. Warren Magnuson, was preceded by Sen. William F. Knowland of California, who also lambasted the Democrats.

H. Edgar Riegle, 47, Adams County superintendent of schools since 1954, was elected on the first ballot Monday evening as the new superintendent of the Gettysburg Joint School District at a special meeting of the joint board at the high school building here.

Mr. Riegle, who was elected for the unexpired term of Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, head of the Gettysburg public schools for the last 30 years, will present his resignation as county superintendent next Monday evening to the county board of school directors.

Dr. Keefauver's resignation will be effective December 31. The term for which Mr. Riegle was elected will end July 1, 1958. The date on which his resignation as county superintendent will be effective has not been set.

Little Withdraws
Mr. Riegle's election came after Marsby C. Little, Waynesboro superintendent of schools, had withdrawn as a candidate before the voting began. His withdrawal came after the joint board fixed the salary at $9,000, the salary now received by Dr. Keefauver and the new minimum fixed by state law. Mr. Little said that his salary for next year at Waynesboro has been set for $9,000 and that he could not consider any figure under $10,000.

Little's withdrawal left only Mr. Riegle and Donald B. Hudson, supervising principal of the Union City, Pa., schools in Erie County, in the field. After the first roll call vote gave Mr. Riegle a margin of 31 to 5 there was a quick motion to make the election unanimous and it was passed without a dissenting vote.

In addition to the $9,000 annual salary, Riegle was voted a $200 traveling expense allowance, the same amount now given Dr. Keefauver.

"Most Important Meeting"

As county superintendent, Riegle receives $9,000. After his election Mr. Riegle was called into the meeting room and notified of the result. He accepted and thanked the directors in a brief speech.

Thirty-six of the 37 directors in the joint district were present for the election which Dr. Keefauver told the board was "the most important school board meeting any of you have ever attended."

Each of the three men recommended by the Teacher committee for the superintendency appeared before the board Monday evening. Each was allowed 30 minutes to make any statement he wished to the board and to answer directors' questions. The order in which they appeared was fixed by drawing lots. Mr. Riegle was first, Hudson second and Little last.

The final report of the Teacher committee on the superintendency was presented by Mrs. Golda B. Collins, chairman, member of the Gettysburg board. Months ago the committee was given the job of screening the 14 prospects for the position and recommending three to the board for their decision. Mrs. Collins listed all 14, explained the procedure followed in narrowing the field to three and then gave a committee recommendation that the new superintendent be paid the minimum salary provided by law—$9,000. The report was adopted.

It was then that Mr. Little was (Continued on Page 3)

FABER FORMS PARTNERSHIP

Fred S. Faber Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Faber Sr., Chambersburg St., has announced the formation of a partnership as consulting engineers with Victor D. Macomber. The firm will operate under the name of Macomber and Faber with offices at 1824 N. 4th St., Harrisburg.

Faber, 32, graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1942 after which he entered Penn State University for engineering studies. These were interrupted by his call to service. After three years with the army including duty in Korea, Faber completed his studies at Penn State and graduated in 1948.

Following graduation he worked for the Capital Engineering Co., Dillsburg; John S. Teeter and Sons, Inc., Gettysburg, and Gannett, Fleming, Courdy and Carpenter, Harrisburg.

Lions And Families At Annual Picnic

Nearly 150 members of the Gettysburg Lions Club and their families attended the annual family picnic meeting Monday evening at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. President Eugene R. Hartman presided. A barbecued chicken dinner was served.

There were games and contests and prizes were distributed to the children. There was also a movie for the youngsters and games for the adults.

Indian Says Dulles' Plan On Suez Will Be Rejected

By LYNN HEINZERLING
LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three made a concentrated drive for Asian and Middle Eastern support of their proposal for international operation of the Suez Canal today, but India's V. K. Krishna Menon warned that Egypt would reject the plan.

Menon, who visited President Nasser in Cairo before coming to the conference, told a press conference the Western plan was "entirely impracticable."

The Indian envoy yesterday put a compromise proposal before the 22-nation conference called to deal with the Suez dispute. The Indian plan would give Egypt full control of the 103-mile waterway, with an international body to act only in a consultative and advisory capacity.

Menon said the plan presented by Secretary of State Dulles — for an international board to operate the canal with Egyptian participation — in effect would internationalize the present canal company. Nasser announced July

Nixon And Herter

Gov. Christian Herter, left, of Massachusetts, talks with Vice President Richard Nixon in San Francisco hotel lobby Monday. Harold Stassen has waged a virtual one-man campaign to have Nixon replaced by Herter as President Eisenhower's running mate. Herter is scheduled to put Nixon's name before convention for renomination. He has refused to have his name placed in nomination against Nixon. (AP Wirephoto)

Top Flight Delegate Leaders Are Invited To Call On Ike In San Francisco Late Today

By JACK BELL
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—President Eisenhower comes to town today to put his personal touch on a Republican convention geared to renominate him and Vice President Nixon.

In advance of his scheduled arrival late in the day, leaders of key state delegations reported they had received telephoned invitations from the White House to call on him.

Some said they felt certain there would be no discussion of Harold E. Stassen's languishing campaign to dump Nixon from the ticket.

In fact, a surge of Nixon strength among delegates made it appear that the time had passed when the vice president could be sidetracked by anything other than direct presidential word that Eisenhower didn't want him.

Delighted With Nixon
No one expected that. Eisenhower said he would be delighted to have Nixon on any ticket with him but has not excluded the possibility that he might be satisfied with another candidate.

Property Transfers NINE COUPLES GET LICENSES

YORK SPRINGS INTERSECTION PROJECT OK'D

Pennsylvania's first highway project under the federal road program, to eliminate the hazardous York Springs intersection, was approved by the State Highways Department yesterday for contractors' bids Sept. 14.

It comprises a 2.8 mile York Springs by-pass to the east of that Adams County community, and will be constructed as a four-lane divided limited access expressway to meet federal specifications for the new interstate highway system.

The four-lane road will run from about three-fourths of a mile south of Deardorffs Mills, to about 2 1/2 miles north of Heidelsburg. A bridge will carry it over Route 94, (the Hanover road) east of the present intersection of the two highways which has long been regarded as a hazard.

Hearing Last Week
At a public hearing on the proposed project in York Springs last Wednesday 13 of 20 witnesses said they favored the by-pass location for the new highway. Such hearings are required on all new projects in the interstate system.

The York Springs by-pass is the first of hundreds of such projects which will be required to skirt communities to meet the limited access standards of the interstate highway plan and qualify for federal aid.

On the same date the state will also receive bids for the construction of a bridge to carry Route 641 over Big Spring Creek at Newville, Cumberland County.

BASEHORE ON NATIONAL TV

Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, E. Middle St., Adams County's delegate to the Republican National Convention in San Francisco, found himself briefly on a nation-wide television broadcast Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

National Broadcasting Company telecaster "Red" Muller, on the convention floor, "cornered" Basehore as the delegate from President Eisenhower's home district and conversed briefly with the local man before the NBC television cameras.

Among other questions, Muller asked Basehore how Pennsylvania stood on the vice presidency. Basehore, who had announced himself as both an Eisenhower and Nixon "man" before leaving here for San Francisco, answered that "as of last night" the Pennsylvania delegation was "100 per cent" behind Nixon.

Asked how Eisenhower's health was considered locally, Basehore responded "the last time I saw him, several weeks ago, he looked fairly good."

Literature Features AAA Headquarters

Literature featuring the new AAA headquarters of the Gettysburg Motor Club on Lincoln Square is now being distributed to Club patrons. The facilities were recently redecorated and placed under the management of George W. Miller, who was for 29 years manager of the Wilkinsburg Automobile Club.

In addition to handling the personal needs of AAA members in the community, the Gettysburg Motor Club takes care of thousands of tourists who visit Gettysburg and tour the local Civil War Shrines. The Club has an important part in building goodwill for the community and urging tourists return to the Battlefield.

Two Cyclists Hurt In Sunday Mishap

Two motorcyclists were treated Sunday evening at the Waynesboro Hospital for injuries after the machine on which they were riding blew a tire and overturned on the Sunshine Trail section of Route 16.

IN CRASH MONDAY

A car being driven north on the Westminster Rd., two miles south of Hanover, skidded and collided with an oncoming truck Monday morning. No one was hurt. State police said the car was driven by Edwin J. Kenyon, Westminster, and the truck by Larry Kline, 16, Littlestown.

VFW TO MEET

Post 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at its home on E. Middle St. Commander Raymond Strohm announced today. A home association meeting will follow the post session.

Shoe Sale: Rose-Ann Shoppe, Baltimore Street, Gettysburg.

Sesqui Committee To Meet Tonight

Further plans for Gettysburg's Sesquicentennial will be outlined at a meeting of representatives of all local organizations this evening at 8 o'clock at the engine house, E. Middle St.

Burgess William G. Weaver, chairman of the Sesquicentennial committee, urged that representatives of all local organizations be present. "We hope to make what will amount to final plans this evening and we need the advice and help of everyone," Weaver said.

SCHOOL BAND TO PARADE FORELKS AT CONVENTION

The Gettysburg High School Senior Band will lead the state convention parade of the Elks in Reading, on Wednesday at 2 p.m. About 75 members of the band will make the Reading trip leaving Gettysburg at 9:15 a.m. by bus.

Band members will have lunch and change into uniform at St. James Lutheran Church, Fifth and Chestnut Sts., Reading, their headquarters while at the convention. After marching in the parade the bandmen will return by bus.

Because of the parade there will be a special rehearsal of the Senior Band this evening from 7 to 8:30 o'clock in preparation for the event. All band members, majorettes and color guard should attend. Final schedules and arrangements will be announced at that time.

Elementary Rehearsal
There will be no rehearsal of the junior band this week but the elementary band will meet Thursday from 7:30-9 p.m. in the high school band room.

General chairman of the Reading Elks convention is H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, a member of the Gettysburg Lodge. Attending from the local area as delegates to the convention are James Reagle, William Kuhn, and Russell Kane. Warren Dunn and Hubert Gallagher are also attending the convention.

This marks the third occasion on which the High School band has participated in an Elks convention. Five years ago the band traveled to Williamsport and three years ago they paraded at Harrisburg.

County Soldier Leaves For Europe

Pvt. Russell F. Klinedinst, whose wife, Mary, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klinedinst, live at York Springs, R. 2, left Monday for Europe as part of Operation Gyroscopic, the Army's unit rotation plan.

Klinedinst is a member of the 8th Infantry Division, which has been stationed at Fort Carson, Colo., and is replacing the 9th Infantry Division in Germany.

Klinedinst, a cook in Headquarters and Service Company of the division's 41st Tank Battalion, entered the Army last February and completed basic training at Fort Carson. He was graduated from North Adams Joint High School in 1950.

LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

Cpl. William Holtzworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Holtzworth, West High St., left Sunday for New York City from where he will sail for a two-year tour of duty in the U. S. Air Force. Holtzworth, a graduate of Delone High School, McSherrystown, has been in the Air Force a year and completed a furlough in Gettysburg Sunday.

AUTHORITY TO SELL TIMBER IN MOUNTAINS

The Gettysburg Municipal Authority may have sold 144,330 board feet of timber off the water company's land in Franklin and Hamiltonban Twp. Monday evening, but the members of the authority board won't know until the engineers finish using their slide rules on a bid.

The authority had sought bids for 566 trees, 247 of them red oaks, 124 tulip poplars and the others including hemlocks, beech, birch, black locust, elms and white pines. The bid, submitted by Robert E. Elcholtz, of the Biglerville R. D. sawmill firm of Elcholtz Brothers, followed the custom of listing a number of prices, depending upon what will be gotten from the trees when they are converted into lumber.

The board turned the bid over to the engineers and asked them to figure out what the amounts are in dollars. If the bid figure is "good," the timber will be sold.

Members of the board said the decision to sell some of the timber off the woodlands owned by the water company was based on conservation measures. The older, and dead trees are to be removed to make room for new growth and cut down fire hazards, and thus keep the woods green permanently at the headwaters of Marsh Creek, which supplies Gettysburg with its water.

Had Trees Marked

Forester James F. Heagy was retained to examine the forests and mark the trees to be cut. The authority also, at its meeting Monday evening in the offices of the law firm of Bulleit and Bulleit in The First National Bank building, voted to ask bids for installation of a new "high-low" pump at the pumping station south of town.

Firm Signs For Group Insurance

Employees of the Blosser Baby Shoe Co., 318 West Middle St., are now covered by a group insurance plan, it was announced today by David C. Blosser Jr., of the firm.

Underwritten by The Travelers Insurance Company, the contract provides employees participating in the plan with life insurance benefits. Coverage is extended to all personnel, premiums being paid by the employer.

FABER FORMS PARTNERSHIP

Fred S. Faber Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Faber Sr., Chambersburg St., has announced the formation of a partnership as consulting engineers with Victor D. Macomber. The firm will operate under the name of Macomber and Faber with offices at 1824 N. 4th St., Harrisburg.

Faber, 32, graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1942 after which he entered Penn State University for engineering studies. These were interrupted by his call to service. After three years with the army including duty in Korea, Faber completed his studies at Penn State and graduated in 1948.

Following graduation he worked for the Capital Engineering Co., Dillsburg; John S. Teeter and Sons, Inc., Gettysburg, and Gannett, Fleming, Courdry and Carpenter, Harrisburg.

Lions And Families At Annual Picnic

Nearly 150 members of the Gettysburg Lions Club and their families attended the annual family picnic meeting Monday evening at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. President Eugene R. Hartman presided. A barbecued chicken dinner was served.

There were games and contests and prizes were distributed to the children. There was also a movie for the youngsters and games for the adults.

Peace, Prosperity, Progress Theme Of GOP Keynote Speech

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Arthur E. Langlie of Washington has set the keynote of the Republican National Convention: "Peace, prosperity and progress."

Langlie, giving the convention's stamewinding speech late yesterday, told delegates: "We are here to pledge to the American people four more years of honest, efficient administration... four more years of our crusade for a finer America in a better world under the competent, steadfast, forthright leadership of Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Langlie denounced the Democrats as corrupt and divided. He warmly praised the Republicans as bringers of "peace, prosperity and progress."

The 56-year-old governor, who is running for the U.S. Senate in Washington against Democratic Sen. Warren Magnuson, was preceded by Sen. William F. Knowland of California, who also lambasted the Democrats.

IKE GOING TO SAN FRANCISCO ONE DAY EARLY

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—A change in his plans will put President Eisenhower in San Francisco in time to take a personal hand, if he wants, in the designation of his vice presidential running mate. But there was no new indication he plans to do so.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said yesterday Eisenhower will leave tomorrow—24 hours earlier than he had planned—for the Republican National Convention. He said Eisenhower wants more time "to visit with many of his friends who are delegates."

Not To Stay Aloof
A key administration official who asked not to be named said the change in plans was "in no way related" to the second-spot nomination. The nomination is expected to go to Vice President Nixon despite Harold E. Stassen's efforts to keep Nixon off the ticket.

This official said Eisenhower allowed himself an extra day in San Francisco "because he does not want to give any slightest impression of remaining aloof from the convention," and so he can talk with friends.

Under the revised schedule, Eisenhower will leave Washington at noon EDT tomorrow and arrive at San Francisco's International Airport at 6:30 p.m. PDT. The convention will nominate the presidential and vice presidential candidates the following day.

No Preference Given
Hagerty called an unusual Sunday news conference to announce the change, but cast no new light on Eisenhower's preference for a running mate. Instead, he referred to earlier Eisenhower news conferences at which the President had said that the convention should be "open" with delegates free to make a choice; Nixon was "perfectly acceptable to him" and he would have nothing to say about a running mate "until after a presidential candidate is nominated," Eisenhower said last Feb. 29.

Hagerty said he did not know whether Eisenhower might speak out after his own renomination was made official.

The O'Brien twins, Eddie and Johnny, of the Pittsburgh Pirates lost their bonus designation on July 2. It means they had served two full years in the majors and on that date were subject to option.

HEISEY HEADS PENNSY ELKS

Pennsy Earnings Off 3 Millions

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad has announced July earnings this year were 3% million dollars less than those for the same month in 1955.

The nation's largest railroad observed in an accompanying statement that the effects of the steel strike which began July 1 were felt on the company's business as the steel mills prepared to close down. The statement added that business from the steel companies picked up slowly after the strike settlement in early August.

The statement of earnings showed net income for July of $265,079, a decrease of $3,321,039 in earnings from 1955; and $22,452,019 for the first seven months, a drop of $2,018,707 from last years similar period.

state vice president for the same district, and a past district deputy grand exalted ruler.

A native of Elizabethtown, Heisey was graduated from high school in 1929 and Elizabethtown College in 1933.

He served briefly on the Elizabethtown borough council before enlisting in the armed forces in 1942.

In 1951 and 1952 he was deputy director of Civil Defense for the Elizabethtown area of Lancaster County.

At the present he is secretary-treasurer of the Elizabethtown Water Company, operates an insurance office, is secretary-treasurer of the Mt. Tunnel Cemetery Association and finance officer of Cone-wago Post No. 329 American Legion. He is also a Rotarian.

IKE "ON TOP OF THE WORLD" AS HE FLIES WEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—A beaming President Eisenhower headed today for San Francisco where the Republican National Convention eagerly waited to nominate him for a second term.

An overnight rain had let up but the skies were overcast as Eisenhower took off at 12:16 p.m. aboard his private plane Columbine III.

There was no indication whether he would have something to say publicly or privately about the question of a running mate.

"On Top Of The World" Whatever role the President may take in filling the No. 2 spot however, all signs pointed to the convention renominating Vice President Nixon.

Eisenhower smiled happily as he arrived at the military terminal at Washington National Airport.

He picked up each of his four grandchildren and kissed them goodbye. To grandson David, he said, "Hey, where did you get that sweater?" It was bright red.

Eisenhower was described by his personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, as feeling "on top of the world."

Eisenhower was dressed in a brown suit and tie. Mrs. Eisenhower was entirely in gray.

The presidential party left the White House in a cavalcade to the applause of about 150 tourists who had waited at the southwest gate.

He waved and smiled from the car as onlookers yelled "Goodbye Ike," and "Here we go, Ike."

Traffic in both directions had been halted by police all the way from the White House, down Constitution Ave., across Memorial Bridge and thence along the Mt. Vernon Parkway to the airport.

At each corner small crowds had collected and halted motorists stepped out of cars to watch and wave.

WARD'S NAMES PRIZE WINNERS

Prize winners at the opening of the new Montgomery Ward catalogue store, 51 West St., were announced Monday as follows by Mrs. Rosemary Starkins, manager.

Wardamatic electric coffeemaker, Donald Bollinger, 33 E. Middle St.; G. ## BULLETIN

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today voted against increasing automobile passenger tolls but ordered a "realistic" study made of truck tolls with a view of reducing them.

The Democratic commission majority adopted suggestions contained in an engineering survey report calling for an immediate reduction in truck tolls on the superhighway but advising against considering an increase in automobile tolls before the spring of 1958.

New Councilman At East Berlin

The East Berlin borough council has elected Richard Snyers a councilman to complete the unexpired term of George Glatfelter, who has moved from the borough, and has appointed Curtis Eisenhart borough secretary.

Eisenhart succeeds Harper J. Phillips, who resigned.

Councilmen learned during a recent meeting that construction of a $270,000 sanitary sewer system is progressing according to contract despite a shortage of pipe. Sewer connection permits can be obtained Thursdays between 7 and 9 p.m. at the borough jail.

Ed Sullivan Enters New Haven Hospital

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Ed Sullivan, nationally syndicated newspaper columnist and television personality, entered Grace-New Haven Community Hospital last night to be treated for what the hospital described as "some congestion in the lower right lobe of his lung." His condition is not serious.

The hospital said: "His recuperation from a recent auto accident was interrupted by an elevation of temperature, and he was transferred from his Southbury home to the hospital. He is not in serious distress and his removal to the hospital is made primarily in order to take advantage of the diagnostic facilities there because of some congestion in the lower right lobe of his lung."

Sullivan and three others were injured in a two-car accident early Aug. 6 in Seymour and spent nearly two weeks at Griffin Hospital, Derby.

"Sympathy" Angle Is Used By Salesman

Adams County's blind weavers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Gettysburg R. 5, apparently were "worked" for "sympathy" sales today. The couple called The Gettysburg Times to see what action they could take when reports came to them from friends and neighbors that the neighbors had purchased magazine subscriptions "from the youth sent by the Johnsons." Robert Johnson said that a person purporting to be selling subscriptions for magazines to raise funds for the Hendrix Orphan's Home, Delaware, came to the Johnson home, last week, and the Johnsons purchased a subscription to a magazine from him. Today they learned by phone that the salesman had been to other homes today and mentioned the Johnsons to help make sales.

ANOTHER WOMAN?

HEMETT, Calif. (AP)—Druggist Hal Longacre is slightly puzzled by a letter received from a woman to whom he sold some medicine. "Since taking the medicine," she wrote, "I am another woman. Needless to say, my husband is delighted."

NAUGLE NAMED VICE PRESIDENT BY IFYE GROUP

John D. Naugle, assistant Adams County farm agent has been named vice president of the International Farm Youth, a group of 500 members made up of young men and women from throughout the United States who went abroad as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates in the last few years. Naugle was an IFYE delegate to Switzerland two years ago.

He was also elected one of the two directors of the 1954 group — the group of IFYE delegates who visited foreign countries under the program in 1954. The other director named for the 1954 group was Miss Dorothy MacLean, Elm Creek, Nebraska.

Miss MacLean and Mr. Naugle announced their engagement last week.

Miss MacLean was also secretary of the national group. The two were named also to the committee to plan for the 1957 conference of the International Farm Youth at Dawson Springs, Kentucky, next year. The elections took place at a conference at Ephrata.

Princess Margaret Is 23 Years Old

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret, the world's No. 1 royal spinster, turned 26 today amid the usual press speculation over her plans for the future.

Her official birthday portraits showed the princess looking almost somber, in contrast to her smiling pictures of a year ago.

"Isn't it odd," asked the Daily Mirror, "that a young girl should choose a gay picture one year and a sad one the next?"

"Has anything happened since last year to explain the change?" It is now almost 10 months since she decided against marrying Group Capt. Peter Townsend, a divorced Royal Air Force hero, because of her obligations to the monarchy and the established Church of England. The church frowns on remarriage of divorced persons.

The princess planned to spend her birthday quietly with her sister, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and other members of the royal family at Balmoral castle, in Scotland.

1 Killed, 3 Injured In Highway Accident

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Amy B. Shae, 75, of Philadelphia, was killed and three other persons were injured when two cars collided head-on on Rt. 122 a short distance east of Mount Carmel yesterday. State police said she was a passenger in the auto driven by her daughter, Mrs. Amy Roberta Thomas, 41, of St. David's, Delaware County.

Mrs. Thomas received lacerations and chest injuries in the crash, as did Mrs. Lottie Belsky, 48, driver of the other car, and her husband, John Belsky, both of Shamokin. All three were admitted to the Ashland State Hospital, where they were reported in satisfactory condition.

Crash Kills Girl, Mother Is Injured

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A two-year-old girl was killed and her mother critically injured in a two-car crash yesterday in northeast Philadelphia.

Killed was Loretta Niemczak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Niemczak, of Feasterville, Pa. Her mother, Mrs. Irene Niemczak, 26, remained in critical condition in Nazareth Hospital today. Police said the Niemczak car skidded on wet paving and struck an oncoming automobile a glancing blow, then struck one driven by the Rev. Glenn E. Troyer, 31, a Baptist missionary touring eastern prisons. He was slightly injured.

3 FRENCHMEN DRIFT ACROSS ATLANTIC OCEAN

FALMOUTH, England (AP) — Three bearded Frenchmen stepped ashore from a long raft today after an epic 89-day drift across the Atlantic from Canada. They said they'd go home "in a big boat."

Hundreds of vacationers cheered as the raft L'Egare II—"The Lost One"—glided peacefully under tow into this Cornish port at the end of the 3,000-mile journey. "We are crazy Frenchmen, yes," yelled Henri Beaudot, 29-year-old leader of the expedition. Beaudot and three companions set out on their 13 by 17-foot raft of rope-tied cedar logs from Halifax, N.S., May 24. One man sickened 380 miles out in the Atlantic and a fishing boat took him back to Canada. Gaston Vanackere, 31, and Marc Modena, 27, made it across with their leader.

Towed Into Port
The sturdy craft sighted Penzance, southernmost tip of England, yesterday and a lifeboat from the Lizard lighthouse brought Beaudot ashore. But he insisted on returning to his raft when another craft took it in tow for the entry into this old English fishing port.

Two kittens also made the voyage. "They cheered us up whenever we felt a little depressed," said Vanackere "and, believe me, there were days of storm and high wind when we did not feel too happy."

A small cabin covered with a tarpaulin was the voyagers' only shelter, a small sail all they had to help out the Gulf Stream.

Food Gave Out
"It was not too unpleasant, except in the worst of gales," Vanackere reported. "But we have done what we set out to do, which was to allow the Gulf Stream to carry us across the Atlantic using the minimum of sail."

Food supplies gave out a month ago. "We practically lived on fish, which we speared or caught with lines," Beaudot said, touching his gaunt cheeks.

"For drink we had rain water—and there was never any shortage of that," he added.

All three men sported 30-day beards.

"Water was too precious," Beaudot explained. "It was better to go down the throat than on the face."

TWO ISRAELI SOLDIERS SLAIN

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — A military spokesman said two Israeli soldiers were killed today in an hour's clash inside Jordan, the second along the frontier in four days.

The spokesman said three Jordanian national guardsmen were wounded when a 30-man Israeli force attacked with a mortar and automatic weapons at a village near Jenin, in southwest Jordan.

The spokesman reported the Israelis left one body 400 yards inside Jordan and it was being guarded until United Nations truce observers reach the scene.

Jordan charged previously that four Israelis drove a jeep into Jordanian territory Saturday and one Israeli was killed.

An Israeli spokesman on Saturday denied a soldier was killed and insisted Jordan's patrols fired on the Israelis from Jordan's side of the border.

Quiz Suspect In Acid Hurling Case

NEW YORK (AP) — Police last night charged a young tattooed truck loader with homicide in a barroom stabbing. They also questioned him about another killing that may be connected with the acid blinding of columnist Victor Riesel.

The truck loader, Hugh Francis Drescher, 23, surrendered to police yesterday. He refused, however, to answer questions about the stabbing or about the killing of truck driver Fred Mischner last Saturday.

Both Drescher and Mischner were pals of a murdered hoodlum who, the FBI says, threw the acid that blinded Riesel.

The crusading labor columnist has said the deaths of the alleged acid-hurler, Abraham Telvi, and Mischner are links in a chain of underworld slayings connected with the attack on him.

51 CUB SCOUTS ON NIGHT HIKE

Fifty-one Cub Scouts of Littlestown Pack No. 34 enjoyed an overnight hike during the weekend. The Cubes, accompanied by Cubmaster Stewart N. Long, Assistant Beaver F. Hanlon and Den Chiefs Paul Hazlton, Paul Bowman, Plus Pautenis, William Blocher and Robert Hahn, left town from the East King St. school at 4 p.m. on Saturday, and hiked to the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, near town. The boys had a wicker roast that evening, played games and told stories. They slept in tents that night. Breakfast was served on Sunday morning, after which the boys returned to town in time for Sunday School or church.

On Saturday, the Cubes will be the guests of the Baltimore Orioles management at a big league baseball game in Baltimore. The boys will leave at 12:30 p.m., Saturday, and will travel by private car. Cost to the boys will be ten cents, the price of insurance; the drivers will need to pay their own admission. Each boy should eat a substantial meal before leaving on Saturday; Cubes may wear their full uniforms, but must wear their Scout hats.

About 700 roast chicken and ham suppers were served at the annual picnic of St. John's Lutheran Church held on Saturday in the church grove. Music was provided by the Littlestown High School Band.

Picnic On Sunday
The family picnic of the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown was held on Sunday afternoon at Big Pipe Creek Park, Taneytown. A basket lunch was enjoyed and a social hour followed. There were group games for the children. The publicity committee, Mrs. R. Kenneth Boyd, chairman, arranged the affair.

The next regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club will be held Thursday, September 13, at Boyd's Restaurant, E. King St. Parliamentary procedure will be the program theme; in charge of the cheer committee will be Mrs. Laverne P. Louey, chairman.

A Board of Review will be held in connection with the weekly meeting of Boy Scout Troop No. 34 on Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m., in the Scout headquarters on W. King St. A Court of Awards will take place on September 5.

Tax Cuts Consistent With Balanced Budget, And Good Defense Force, GOP Planks

By NORMAN WALKER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican platform makers today pledged the nation new tax cuts "with particular consideration for low and middle income families."

The tentative tax plank is being presented late today to the Republican National Convention for expected certain approval. It calls for the tax cuts insofar as they are "consistent with a balanced budget."

The tax plank calls for further reduction in government spending "without weakening the support of a superior defense program or depreciating the quality of essential services of government to our people."

The party's proposed stand on taxes, as drafted by the convention Platform Committee, was one of several planks made public early today.

Preamble Is Withdrawn
Others were released earlier by Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut, committee chairman. He withheld, however, the preamble to the platform until he delivers it himself before the convention.

The platform's section on defense expressed partly determination to maintain adequate military strength "so long as our security and peace of the world require it."

It declared the United States has "the strongest striking force in the world—in the air—on the sea—and a magnificent supporting land force in our Army and Marine Corps."

Besides the promise to cut personal income taxes the GOP plank pledged to initiate "a sound policy of tax reductions" for small independent business to encourage it to modernize and achieve progress.

Assure Financial Strength
"Continued balancing of the budget" also was pledged to assure financial strength of the country and "maintain the purchasing power of a sound dollar."

The GOP plank steered clear, however, of making the specific tax cut pledge contained in the Democratic platform—to raise personal income tax exemptions from $600 to $800 a year.

The platform claimed that one of the "brightest areas of achievement" under the Republican administration has been the conservation of natural resources. Democrats had claimed at Chicago that the administration allowed "selfish interests" to "pillage" these resources.

"We commend," the platform said, "the Eisenhower administration for its administration of our public lands and for the elimination of bureaucratic abuses."

The platform gave approval to the Eisenhower policy of developing water power resources under a partnership arrangement with government and private interests. Democrats claimed that this policy has worked to the interest of big concerns.

Republican platform drafters avoided, as did the Democrats, charging much new ground on the racial problem.

Racial Equality
Support was expressed for the Supreme Court decision which outlawed segregation by race in the public schools. But nothing concrete was stated in the way of how the court decision is to be enforced.

The GOP plank said all branches of the federal government should lend their support "in every legal manner" to see that racial equality will be "steadily achieved."

The Democratic platform had similarly stated that ending racial discrimination is a federal, as well as state and local, responsibility.

The Republican farm plank declared that farmers have confidence in President Eisenhower and his agricultural policies. The platform made clear the GOP will bid for farm votes this year on a promise to continue and expand present Eisenhower administration farm policies and to reduce government controls.

There was some grumbling among delegates that the GOP civil rights plank went "too far" toward one side or the other in the North-South controversy. But nobody appeared too mad over the compromise language.

School Desegregation
The GOP plank expressed agreement with the Supreme Court that recalled to the meeting and advised of the action on the salary question. He repeated his earlier statement that he could not leave Waynesboro for less than $10,000 and asked that his name be withdrawn before the voting began.

Followed Law On Voting

One director asked for a recess before the roll call was started and Dr. R. D. Wickerham, joint board president, granted a five-minute recess. Dr. Keefe and Kenneth G. Reinhardt Jr., board secretary, were appointed tellers and, after one director was convinced that the law required a roll call vote with each director announcing his choice, the roll call was begun with districts and directors being called alphabetically.

The only absentee was John Saute, member of the Franklin Twp. board who was reported in New York state and unable to be present. The opening of the meeting was delayed 20 minutes and convened with 30 directors present. Six more arrived within the next 10 minutes. A meeting of the joint district Transportation committee followed the special board meeting.

Teacher For 10 Years

The superintendent-elect is a graduate of the Franklin Twp. and Arendville public schools. He graduated from Gettysburg College and did graduate work at Duke University and Penn State. He has had 10 years of experience as a classroom teacher, five years as a supervising principal at Spring Grove, four years as an assistant superintendent of the York County schools and for more than two years has been the county superintendent here.

Dr. Keefe did not appear at the meeting until he was called in to serve as a teller. He acted as host to the three candidates in his office during the board's deliberations.

school desegregation should be accomplished with "all deliberate speed" and added:

"We believe that true progress can be attained through intelligent study, understanding, education and good will."

Support was pledged by "all branches of the federal government" to the end that constitutional equality regardless of race, creed or color will be "steadily achieved."

Democratic Platform Language
Recognized Supreme Court decisions as "the law of the land" and said an end of racial discrimination is a federal, as well as state and local, problem.

Three Attainments
The GOP also pledged to fight racial discrimination in voting, employment and schooling.

It maintained "more progress has been made in this field" under President Eisenhower's administration "than in any other similar period in the past 80 years."

The proposed farm plank said the GOP is committed to a program which creates the "widest possible markets and highest attainable income for our farm and ranch families."

The party's goal, it declared, is the development of markets which will return full parity to farmers when they sell their products. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared to be fair to producers in relation to the cost of things the farmer buys.

In Chicago last week, Democrats also pledged action to regain full parity which they said farmers received under the Truman administration.

COOPERATIVE TO MEET TOMORROW

The annual membership meeting of the Southern States Cooperative will be held Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Lutheran Parish Hall, Emmitsburg. A dinner will precede the meeting at 6:30 o'clock.

A movie and a What's the Answer contest with valuable prizes will feature the meeting.

William E. Wivell of Emmitsburg will serve as chairman of the meeting. Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of Elias Lutheran Church, will deliver the invocation. Day Lindsey will lead group singing.

A report on local operations will be given by Ralph D. Lindsey, manager of the Emmitsburg Feed and Farm Supply, which is sponsoring the meeting. J. A. Silver, Southern States district manager, will report on the overall Southern States operations for the year just ended.

of the Suez only if all the world's major international waterways were to be included in a general scheme of multinational control.

"Why Pick On Us?"

Otherwise, he added, Egypt may well ask: "Why pick on us?" The reply of the British, French and Americans was to arrange separate talks today with almost every Asian and Middle Eastern delegation chief at the conference. British Prime Minister Eden invited Menon to lunch.

An authoritative British source said there was virtually no hope of a compromise between the Western and Indian proposals. But Akilov Hasbawold, Ethiopia's foreign minister, disclosed that, with the support of Iran, Turkey and Pakistan, an effort would be made to amend the Western proposals.

The amendment, he said, "will not change their character, but will make them more approachable to the Indian draft and more acceptable to Egypt."

16 Back Dulles

Russia, Indonesia and Ceylon appeared certain to side with India in opposition to the Western plan. But Western diplomats were guardedly optimistic that at least 16 nations attending the conference would support the plan presented by Dulles.

No voting was planned at today's session, but it was expected each nation would be given a chance to endorse the proposal of its choice.

Egypt refused to attend the London parley called by Britain, France and the United States after Nasser's nationalization action. But Egyptian officials are keeping in close touch with conference developments.

Cashman Reunion Is Held On Sunday

The 26th annual Cashman reunion was held Sunday at St. Luke's Church, near Bonneauville, with President Ray Epley presiding. About 75 descendants were in attendance. Rev. Paul Foulk, Hanover, delivered the main address. Reports of the offices were given, in which the progress of the compiling and printing of the genealogy were set forth.

Prizes were awarded to the oldest person present, Rev. Charles Shull, of Frederick, Md.; traveled the farthest, Mrs. Franklin Heindle, Silver Spring, Md.; youngest person, Edward Leroy Cashman Jr., 5 months, and youngest married couple Mr. and Mrs. Perrell Worley, Hanover.

The vital statistics revealed 15 births, eight marriages and 25 deaths. The election of officers resulted in all the present officers being retained: President, Ray Epley, New Oxford; first vice president, Charles Cashman, Taneytown; second vice president, William Cashman Sr., New Cumberland; secretary, Miss Vergie Musser, Gettysburg; treasurer, Lawrence Fidler, Gettysburg; genealogist, Arthur Weaver, Gettysburg; assistant genealogist, Dr. W. A. R. Bell, Frederick, and historian, Rev. Charles Shull, Frederick.

ADLAI TO SPEAK IN HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, will be the principal speaker here Sept. 13 at a $50 fund-raising dinner opening the party's Pennsylvania election campaign. Democratic State headquarters announced.

Miss Genevieve Blatt, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, said last night the date for the event was shifted from Sept. 12 to dovetail with television commitments already made by the party's national headquarters.

Before the Democratic National Convention, arrangements had been made for the party's presidential nominee to speak at the Harrisburg fund-raising dinner, then set for Sept. 12 but changed yesterday.

Miss Blatt said it was uncertain whether Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Stevenson's running mate for vice president, would attend the dinner at the state farm show building.

Miss Blatt said Stevenson will deliver a 30-minute speech at the dinner.

A marriage license has been issued to Miss Dolores E. Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Little, Hanover, and Paul S. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith, McSherrytown.

3 FRENCHMEN DRIFT ACROSS ATLANTIC OCEAN

FALMOUTH, England (AP) — Three bearded Frenchmen stepped ashore from a long raft today after an epic 89-day drift across the Atlantic from Canada. They said they'd go home "in a big boat."

Hundreds of vacationers cheered as the raft L'Egare II—"The Lost One"—glided peacefully under tow into this Cornish port at the end of the 3,000-mile journey.

"We are crazy Frenchmen, yes!" yelled Henri Beaudot, 29-year-old leader of the expedition. Beaudot and three companions set out on their 13 by 17-foot raft of rope-tied cedar logs from Halifax, N.S., May 24. One man sickened 380 miles out in the Atlantic and a fishing boat took him back to Canada. Gaston Vanackere, 31, and Marc Modena, 27, made it across with their leader.

The GOP plank steered clear, however, of making the specific tax cut pledge contained in the Democratic platform—to raise personal income tax exemptions from $600 to $800 a year.

Let us show you how a FOX harvests forage 20 to 40% faster

The Fox Forage Master, with its full 6-ft. mower bar, harvests 35 or more tons of grass silage an hour, depending on the crop. If you want still greater capacity, the new Hevi-Duty FOX, with its full 7-ft. mower bar chops and loads as much forage in 5 hours as most machines do in 7.

Ruggedness and long life are built into every Fox Forage Harvester. Many machines in operation 10 years and longer. . . Cylinder type cutting mechanism insures positive sharp shearing cut. . . Field sharpening is quick and simple. . . Fox safety features prevent damage to the machine from rocks or other hard objects entering the knives.

Fox harvests all forage crops. One man, without tools, can change to pick-up, mower bar, or corn unit in 10 minutes.

recalled to the meeting and advised of the action on the salary question. He repeated his earlier statement that he could not leave Waynesboro for less than $10,000 and asked that his name be withdrawn before the voting began.

Followed Law On Voting

One director asked for a recess before the roll call was started and Dr. R. D. Wickerham, joint board president, granted a five-minute recess. Dr. Keefauver and Kenneth G. Reinhardt Jr., board secretary, were appointed tellers, and after one director was convinced that the law required a roll call vote with each director announcing his choice, the roll call was begun with districts and directors being called alphabetically.

The only absentee was John Saute, member of the Franklin Twp. board who was reported in New York state and unable to be present. The opening of the meeting was delayed 20 minutes and convened with 30 directors present. Six more arrived within the next 10 minutes.

A meeting of the joint district Transportation committee followed the special board meeting.

Teacher For 10 Years

The superintendent-elect is a graduate of the Franklin Twp. and Arendtsville public schools. He graduated from Gettysburg College and did graduate work at Duke University and Penn State. He has had 10 years of experience as a classroom teacher, five years as a supervising principal at Spring Grove, four years as an assistant superintendent of the York County schools and for more than two years has been the county superintendent here.

Dr. Keefauver did not appear at the meeting until he was called in to serve as a teller. He acted as host to the three candidates in his office during the board's deliberations.

school desegregation should be accomplished with "all deliberate speed" and added:

"We believe that true progress can be attained through intelligent study, understanding, education and good will."

Support was pledged by "all branches of the federal government" to the end that constitutionally equal regardless of race, creed or color will be "steadily achieved."

Democratic platform language recognized Supreme Court decisions as "the law of the land" and said an end of racial discrimination is a federal, as well as state and local, problem.

Three Attainments

The GOP also pledged to fight racial discrimination in voting, employment and schooling.

It maintained "more progress has been made in this field" under President Eisenhower's administration "than in any other similar period in the past 80 years."

The proposed farm plank said the GOP is committed to a program which creates the "widest possible markets and highest attainable income for our farm and ranch families."

The party's goal, it declared, is the development of markets which will return full parity to farmers when they sell their products. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared to be fair to producers in relation to the cost of things the farmer buys.

In Chicago last week, Democrats also pledged action to regain full parity which they said farmers received under the Truman administration.

School Desegregation

The GOP plank expressed agreement with the Supreme Court that

COOPERATIVE TO MEET TOMORROW

The annual membership meeting of the Southern States Cooperative will be held Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Lutheran Parish Hall, Emmitsburg. A dinner will precede the meeting at 6:30 o'clock.

A movie and a What's the Answer contest with valuable prizes will feature the meeting.

William E. Wivell of Emmitsburg will serve as chairman of the meeting. Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the Lutheran Church, will deliver the invocation. Day Lindsey will lead group singing.

A report on local operations will be given by Ralph D. Lindsey, manager of the Emmitsburg Feed and Farm Supply, which is sponsoring the meeting. J. A. Silver, Southern States district manager, will report on the overall Southern States operations for the year just ended.

Members of the general committees assisting with the meeting are: decorating, Mrs. Raymond Baumgardner and Mrs. William E. Wivell, Emmitsburg; patron's tickets, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fuss, Emmitsburg; greeting, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cregger, Emmitsburg.

"Why Pick On Us?"

Otherwise, he added, Egypt may well ask: "Why pick on us?" The reply of the British, French and Americans was to arrange separate talks today with almost every Asian and Middle Eastern delegation chief at the conference.

British Prime Minister Eden invited Menon to lunch.

An authoritative British source said there was virtually no hope of a compromise between the Western and Indian proposals. But Akilav Habewold, Ethiopia's foreign minister, disclosed that, with the support of Iran, Turkey and Pakistan, an effort would be made to amend the Western proposals.

The amendment, he said, "will not change their character, but will make them more approachable to the Indian draft and more acceptable to Egypt."

16 Back Dulles

Russia, Indonesia and Ceylon appeared certain to side with India in opposition to the Western plan. But Western diplomats were guardedly optimistic that at least 16 nations attending the conference would support the plan presented by Dulles.

No voting was planned at today's session, but it was expected each nation would be given a chance to endorse the proposal of its choice.

Egypt refused to attend the London parley called by Britain, France and the United States after Nasser's nationalization action. But Egyptian officials are keeping in close touch with conference developments.

WILL DRAFT 1,438

HARRISBURG (AP)—The October selective service draft call for Pennsylvania is 1,438 men, all for the Army.

Henry M. Gross, director of selective service, said all men must be 22.

Charley Peete, rookie outfielder with the St. Louis Cardinals, earned his chance in the major leagues by hitting .351 in 95 games with Omaha during the early part of 1956.

Cashman Reunion Is Held On Sunday

The 26th annual Cashman reunion was held Sunday at St. Luke's Church, near Bonneville, with President Ray Epley presiding. About 75 descendants were in attendance. Rev. Paul Pouk, Hanover, delivered the main address. Reports of the offices were given, in which the progress of the compiling and printing of the genealogy were set forth.

Prizes were awarded to the oldest person present, Rev. Charles Shull, of Frederick, Md.; traveled the farthest, Mrs. Franklin Heindie, Silver Spring, Md.; youngest person, Edward Leroy Cashman Jr., 5 months, and youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Percell Worley, Hanover.

The vital statistics revealed 15 births, eight marriages and 25 deaths. The election of officers resulted in all the present officers being retained: President, Ray Epley, New Oxford; first vice president, Charles Cashman, Taneytown; second vice president, William Cashman Sr., New Cumberland; secretary, Miss Vergie Musser, Gettysburg; treasurer, Lawrence Fidler, Gettysburg; genealogist, Arthur Weaver, Gettysburg; assistant genealogist, Dr. W. A. R. Bell, Frederick; and historian, Rev. Charles Shull, Frederick.

scheduled for replacement in the near future as part of the normal replacement policy of the Municipal authority, board members noted the need for replacement was hurried along by nature. Lightning struck the pumping station about a month ago, and picked the high-low pump as its principal target.

Plans were made to advertise for bids for renovation of the former H. M. Oyer home at 223 Baltimore St., as an office for the authority. The property was purchased some months ago with the authority planning to move there from its present quarters in the second block of Baltimore St.

Chairman Ray M. Hoffman presided at the meeting.

ADLAI TO SPEAK IN HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, will be the principal speaker here Sept. 13 at a $50 fund-raising dinner opening the party's Pennsylvania election campaign, Democratic State headquarters announced.

Miss Genevieve Blatt, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, said last night the date for the event was shifted from Sept. 12 to dovetail with television commitments already made by the party's national headquarters.

Before the Democratic National Convention, arrangements had been made for the party's presidential nominee to speak at the Harrisburg fund-raising dinner, then set for Sept. 12 but changed yesterday.

Miss Blatt said it was uncertain whether Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Stevenson's running mate for vice president, would attend the dinner at the state farm show building.

Miss Blatt said Stevenson will deliver a 30-minute speech at the dinner.

A marriage license has been issued to Miss Dolores E. Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Little, Hanover, and Paul S. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith, McSherrystown.

IKE "ON TOP OF THE WORLD" AS HE FLIES WEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—A beaming President Eisenhower headed today for San Francisco where the Republican National Convention eagerly waited to nominate him for a second term.

An overnight rain had let up but the skies were overcast as Eisenhower took off at 12:16 p.m. aboard his private plane Columbine III.

There was no indication whether he would have something to say publicly or privately about the question of a running mate.

"On Top Of The World"

Whatever role the President may take in filling the No. 2 spot however, all signs pointed to the convention recommending Vice President Nixon.

Eisenhower smiled happily as he arrived at the military terminal at Washington National Airport.

He picked up each of his four grandchildren and kissed them good-bye. To grandson David, he said, "Hey, where did you get that sweater?" It was bright red.

Eisenhower was described by his personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, as feeling "on top of the world."

Eisenhower was dressed in a brown suit and tie. Mrs. Eisenhower was entirely in gray.

The presidential party left the White House in a cavalcade to the applause of about 150 tourists who had waited at the southwest gate.

He waved and smiled from the car as onlookers yelled "Goodby Ike," and "Here we go, Ike."

Traffic in both directions had been halted by police all the way from the White House, down Constitution Ave., across Memorial Bridge and thence along the Mt. Vernon Parkway to the airport.

At each corner small crowds had collected and hailed motorists stepped out of cars to watch and wave.

WARD'S NAMES PRIZE WINNERS

Wardmatic electric coffeemaker, Donald Bollinger, 33 E. Middle St.; G. E. electric iron, Donald Hershey, Cashtown; Ward electric mixer, Woodrow Igean, Arendtsville; Sunbeam electric skillet, Mrs. John Pitzer, 22 1/2 Chambersburg St.; Wardmatic tank-type vacuum, Mrs. Helea Thomas, R. 3; Ward toaster, Mrs. Kent Withrow, R. 4.

The catalogue store opened last Thursday and is designed to help customers order from the Ward catalogue. Salespeople write orders and otherwise assist mail order shoppers. Orders are also taken by telephone.

The store contains displays of merchandise, including appliances, hardware, and women's fashions. Rug and fabric samples are also available.

100 Persons At 9th Zepp Reunion

Approximately 100 attended the ninth annual Zepp reunion Sunday afternoon at the Pines Community Hall near New Chester.

Officers re-elected are: President, William Miller, Wrightsville; vice president, Norman Zepp, New Oxford; secretary, Mrs. John P. F. Zepp, York Springs; Treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Hostetter, Hanover. Joel Zepp was appointed chairman of the historian committee composed of the following: Mrs. Mabel Cashman, Mrs. Charles Martin, Menges Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Zepp.

A basket lunch, contests for the children and a softball game were highlights of the afternoon.

The 1957 reunion will be held at the same place on the third Sunday in August.

CARS COLLIDE

Roland P. Davis, Gettysburg R. 4, who, police said, drove through a red light at the intersection of Middle and S. Washington Streets Sunday collided with a car driven by Ray C. Mackley, 403 S. Washington St., and caused damages of $300 to Mackley's vehicle. The collision occurred at about 4 o'clock as Mackley was driving toward Chambersburg St. on S. Washington St.

FACES CODE CHARGE

A ten day notice for a stop light violation has been sent to Robert Brisbon, Philadelphia, by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. He was arrested by state police.

BULLETIN

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today voted against increasing automobile passenger tolls but ordered a "realistic" study made of truck tolls with a view of reducing them.

The Democratic commission majority adopted suggestions contained in an engineering survey report calling for an immediate reduction in truck tolls on the superhighway but advising against considering an increase in automobile tolls before the spring of 1958.

John D. Naugle, assistant Adams County farm agent has been named vice president of the International Farm Youth, a group of 500 members made up of young men and women from throughout the United States who went abroad as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates in the last few years. Naugle was an IFYE delegate to Switzerland two years ago.

He was also elected one of the two directors of the 1954 group — the group of IFYE delegates who visited foreign countries under the program in 1954. The other director named for the 1954 group was Miss Dorothy MacLean, Elm Creek, Nebraska.

Miss MacLean and Mr. Naugle announced their engagement last week.

Miss MacLean was also secretary of the national group. The two were named also to the committee to plan for the 1957 conference of the International Farm Youth at Dawson Springs, Kentucky, next year. The elections took place at a conference at Ephrata.

Weddings

Ward-Albaugh

The Calvary Methodist Church, Frederick, Md., was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon at two o'clock of Miss Sharon Elaine Albaugh, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Albaugh, Grant Place, and William A. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Ward, Libertytown, Md.

Rev. E. William Hall officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Herman Tyeryar, Frederick, served as matron-of-honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Kay Bourden, McKenney, Va., and Mrs. Leonard Jewson, Philadelphia, both cousins of the bride; Miss Nancy Pennypacker, East New Market, and Mrs. Donald McWilliams, Cambridge, both college classmates of the bride, and Mrs. Carmi Saylor, Frederick.

Flower girls were the Misses Teresa Tyeryar, niece of the bride, and Patricia Ward, sister of the groom.

Best man was Thurble K. Marcoe, Frederick. Ushers were Charles S. Heverly, Alden, Pa.; S. Thomas Kent, Frederick R. D.; John D. Bream, Gettysburg; S. Neil Hyland, Long Island, N. Y.; and Lawrence M. Davies, Norris-town.

A reception followed in the ballroom of the Francis Scott Key Hotel. In the morning Mrs. Carmi Saylor entertained at a wedding breakfast.

Following a wedding trip through the New England states and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will reside in Gettysburg.

Mrs. Ward is a graduate of Frederick High School class of 1952 and of Western Maryland College, class of 1956. Starting in September she will teach physical education at the Gettysburg High School.

The groom is also an alumnus of the local high school, class of 1952, and attended Mercersburg Academy. He will enter his senior year at Gettysburg College this fall.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from New York; Richmond, Va.; Delaware; Philadelphia, York, Alden, Gettysburg and Norris-town, Pa.; Washington, D. C.; and Cambridge and Brunswick, Md.

Sanders-Weaver

Miss Julia Marie Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Weaver, New Oxford R. 1, became the bride of Donald Sanders, son of Mrs. Regina M. Sanders, 103 Pleasant St., New Oxford, Saturday at 8 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church, Conewago. The Rev. John Bolen, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before a setting of assorted flowers.

Joan Greenholt served as organist. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attending the bride was Yvonne Klunk, Hanover R. 5, Paul Reichart Jr., New Oxford R. 2, served as best man. Ushers were Lester Weaver, New Oxford R. 1, brother of the bride, and Edward Kuhn Jr., New Oxford R. 1, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception was held in the Irish town hall Saturday afternoon for about 150 guests. The couple will reside at 33 Center Square, New Oxford. Mrs. Sanders, who attended Delone Catholic High School is employed by Middleburg Manufacturing Co. Her husband, a 1952 graduate of Delone Catholic High School, is employed by Lotes Packing House, Thurmont. He served with the army two years, including 16 months in Korea.

New Councilman At East Berlin

The East Berlin borough council has elected Richard Snyder a councilman to complete the unexpired term of George Glafelter, who has moved from the borough, and has appointed Curtis Eisenhart borough secretary.

Eisenhart succeeds Harper J. Phillips, who resigned.

Councilmen learned during a recent meeting that construction of a $270,000 sanitary sewer system is progressing according to contract despite a shortage of pipe. Sewer connection permits can be obtained Thursdays between 7 and 9 p.m. at the borough jail.

Ed Sullivan Enters New Haven Hospital

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Ed Sullivan, nationally syndicated newspaper columnist and television personality, entered Grace New Haven Community Hospital last night to be treated for what the hospital described as "some congestion in the lower right lobe of his lung." His condition is not serious.

The hospital said: "His recuperation from a recent auto accident was interrupted by an elevation of temperature, and he was transferred from his Southbury home to the hospital. He is not in serious distress and his removal to the hospital is made primarily in order to take advantage of the diagnostic facilities there because of some congestion in the lower right lobe of his lung."

Sullivan and three others were injured in a two-car accident early Aug. 6 in Seymour and spent nearly two weeks at Griffin Hospital, Derby.

"Sympathy" Angle Is Used By Salesman

Adams County's blind weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Gettysburg R. 5, apparently were "worked" for "sympathy" sales today. The couple called The Gettysburg Times to see what action they could take when reports came to them from friends and neighbors that the neighbors had purchased magazine subscriptions "from the youth sent by the Johnsons."

Robert Johnson said that a person purporting to be selling subscriptions for magazines to raise funds for the Hendrix Orphan's Home, Delaware, came to the Johnson home, last week, and the Johnsons purchased a subscription to a magazine from him. Today they learned by phone that the salesman had been to other homes today and mentioned the Johnsons to help make sales.

ANOTHER WOMAN?

HEMET, CALIF. (AP)—Druggist Hal Longacre is slightly puzzled by a letter received from a woman to whom he sold some medicine. "Since taking the medicine," she wrote, "I am another woman. Needless to say, my husband is delighted."

Elvin E. Pryor Jr. Is Buried Monday

Funeral services were held from the Bethel Church of God Monday afternoon for Elvin Pryor Jr., 18, of Fairfield R. D., who died at the York Hospital on Friday. The Rev. George Gray and the Rev. Clarence Magaha officiated and interment was made in the church cemetery.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
Sunday School Convention: The Second Sunday School District held a very interesting convention in the M. E. church in Orrtanna, July 31st.

After the devotional exercises which were conducted by Rev. A. H. Albertson, pastor of the church, the subject of "The Cradle Roll," was discussed by Rev. M. A. Collins, who spoke of the importance of keeping in touch with the children from a very young age until it has been mustered into the Sunday school and this can be best done by the cradle roll.

The speaker was followed by Rev. Amos Sell and J. A. Kime, both giving beneficial talks on the subject. The Normal Department was then opened by E. Norman Walter giving an idea as to what the normal department is and what benefit it is to the teachers and others.

Death of Francis Orner: Another of Adams County's Aged Citizens Called From Time Into Eternity — On Friday, August 17th, 1906, at 3:00 o'clock, Francis W. Orner answered to the summons from on high, when God saw fit to call him from this world of cares to the regions beyond the skies.

We have in his life the principles of honesty, industry and integrity. The deceased was the next to the oldest son of Henry H. Orner Sr., and Sarah Orner, and a member of a family of seven children two of which were girls who died in infancy and older than the deceased. His elder brother Henry and next younger brother, John, survive him.

Francis W. Orner was born February 19th, A. D., 1828, in Menallen township, Adams county, Pa., and never resided outside of said county.

On the 19th day of August, A. D., 1861, he was united in the bonds of holy matrimony with Elizabeth Frommeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frommeyer, who immigrated to this country from Germany, A. D., 1840, to which marriage there were eight children born, three of whom were girls.

In the fall of 1861 he bought, built and moved into the home in which he died, and at which date he entered upon the occupation of farmer, and was one of Adams county's most successful farmers. He was an ardent Democrat and a noble party worker; was once a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, and in general an energetic and useful man.

His lifeless form was borne to its last resting place in Fairview Cemetery at Arendtsville, August 20th, 1906, having reached the age of 78 years, 5 months and 28 days.

Wedding Bells: Taylor-Robertson — James C. Taylor, formerly of this place, now of Johnstown, was united in marriage on the 8th inst., to Miss Mary Lucretia Robertson, of Johnstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Coover, of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor spent part of last week in this place and left Friday for York to spend some time with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor is principal of a ward school at Johnstown. He has been engaged in teaching in that place for some time and has been very successful.

Purchased Hotel: L. E. Martin, of McSherrytown, has purchased the good will and fixtures of the Shafter House, East Berlin, from Landlord Jacobs and will take possession Sept. 2nd.

Camping Parties: A number of members of the Gettysburg Social Club are enjoying camp life at Holtz's dam.

James Tate and family are camping at the "Black Hole" along Marsh Creek.

Badly Scalded: Edward, the little four-year-old son of Mrs. Franklin Twomey, of Round Top, met with a painful accident last Thursday morning. The little fellow fell into a bucket of hot water and was badly scalded, causing the skin to peel from the greater

Today's Talk

THINK IT OVER
What a lot of regrets, and how unhappy we have been, and others with us, simply because we didn't think over decisions that came up for us to handle. Often a business man has saved himself large sums of money by "waiting until tomorrow." There are decisions, however, that do not involve money — but success and happiness. It is always safe to think it over.

When William Jennings Bryan gave that electrifying speech at the Democratic convention in Chicago, known as the "Cross of Gold" speech, the enthusiasm was so great that the convention wanted to nominate him for President that night, but he refused. Flattered as he was he explained if the nomination couldn't wait overnight it wouldn't be worth having at all. So he cautioned them to think it over. They did, nominating him the next day.

No decision that is important will grow less so by taking time to think it over carefully. If you are in doubt about anything, talk to your good friends, or to someone with much experience. Thinking over a problem with someone wiser than oneself, nearly always proves to have been a good and profitable idea. By thinking over all our problems as they confront us, we soon learn to make quicker and wiser decisions, and to help others do the same.

It is amazing how little judgment is used by people who have worked hard and saved in buying some stock with which they have hoped to make their later years more comfortable, only to lose most of the investment because they didn't talk it over with a good friend or banker. Thinking it over, at least is almost sure to be a good thing to do.

If there could be more thinking it over before a strike against a concern that has given jobs to thousands, there would be less strife and a willingness to compromise fairly thus benefiting everyone concerned. Long strikes always leave bitterness and unhappiness behind.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Being Agreeable"

Just Folks

THE RHYMESTER TALKS

I haven't anything to do.
But just sit down and write;
Good people say my life is one
Long round of pure delight.

I do not have to fret and fume
While adding columns long,
No boss there is to worry me
Because a deal goes wrong.

I do not have to stand all day
Before some big machine
And feed rough metal in its maw,
My hands are always clean.

I've no directors over me
Who dividends expect,
Nor do I have to fret about
The bills I can't collect.

Good people, pause while I pray,
And cease to envy me.
The rhymester's life is really not
A constant source of glee.

And there are times when I'd prefer
To add up columns long
Of face directors, stern and grim,
To grinding out a song.

Think not that I complain against
The fates which cast me thus;
Each toiler here must do his task
And shouldn't make a fuss.

I merely venture to remark
One thought that strikes me now:
I'd rather add a column up
Than fill one, anyhow.

TV INDUSTRY SWAMPS CITY IN COVERAGE

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—Through a variety of gadgets and ulcers, the television industry is swamping this convention city just as it did Chicago last week.

You trip over TV cables in hotel corridors, you're stopped by traffic clustered around delegates being interviewed for live cameras in lobbies, and on the floor of the convention itself, you can't move down an aisle without running into equipment.

One delegate, intrigued by an outer-space type of portable transmitter in the hands of a network reporter, walked up and demanded, "Take me to your leader."

In all, more than 1,200 people with about 100 cameras are providing TV coverage from inside the Cow Palace, on the streets, in the hotels and at airports.

John Daly of ABC is the only TV commentator operating directly within the convention hall. He and a dozen assistants work in a tiny booth up near the roof.

Walter Cronkite, CBS' anchor man, operates from a studio off the convention floor. In front of his desk is an "electronic window," about 4 feet by 7 feet, on which a live picture of the floor activity is superimposed while Cronkite talks.

Also on the ground floor and a good distance from the assembled delegates are NBC's Chet Huntley, Dave Brinkley and Bill Henry. They work before a huge photomural, an air view of San Francisco.

'52 INAUGURAL PRAYER BY IKE IS USED AGAIN

COW PALACE, San Francisco (P)—A prayer written by President Eisenhower was read by screen star Irene Dunne at the close of last night's session of the Republican convention.

The President offered it at the beginning of his inaugural address in 1953.

The prayer: "Almighty God, as we stand here at this moment we beseech that Thou make full and complete our dedication to the service of the people in this throng and their fellow citizens everywhere."

"Give us, we pray, the power to discern clearly right from wrong, and allow all our words and actions to be governed thereby and by the laws of this land."

"Especially we pray that our concern shall be for all the people, regardless of station, race or calling. May cooperation be permitted and be the mutual aim of those who, under the concept of our Constitution, hold to differing political beliefs so that all may work for the good of our beloved country, and for Thy glory, Amen."

TV Mistake Gives Rival Candidate Plug

A sign on the picture said, "Re-elect Jonas." But the recorded voice began: "This is Ben Douglas. My friends are . . ." Then it was cut off.

The recorded voice of Douglas, Democratic rival for Jonas' House seat, was used for station break plugs during last week's showing of the Democratic National Convention.

Embarrassed station officials said Jonas will get a free spot to make up for the mistake.

DUTCH FESTIVAL OPENS THURSDAY

HERSHEY, Pa. — Followers of the Pennsylvania Dutch will soon be "shuffling off" to Hershey Park for the eighth annual observance of Pennsylvania's original Dutch festival, Pennsylvania Dutch Days, Thursday, August 23 through Sunday, August 26.

While the program's flavor remains heavily spiced with "Dutch" tradition, the celebration has taken on a decided state fair atmosphere. Several new agricultural features have been added, which will give visitors a bird's eye view of Pennsylvania's Farm Show next January.

Highlighting the "Dutch" aspect of the program will be the mammoth craft exhibits in the Sports Arena, where several hundred artisans will demonstrate such "lost" arts as glass-blowing, ceramics, weaving, and quilting. The quilting section will feature ladies of four area churches and will be backgrounded by a display of some 300 quilts.

In addition to such familiar farm features as the dairy cattle show, market hog show and sale and the farm implement exhibit, James E. Bobb, chairman of the agricultural events, has added two new features, a display by the South Penn Purebred Dairy Goat Association, and a Hay Show. Judging of the dairy show cattle in which 4-H Club members will vie with their elders for $4000 in prize money, and the coronation of the State Lotswarrick (Apple Butter) Queen will be features of Thursday's program.

GOP PLATFORM ON CIVIL RIGHTS IS 'COMPROMISE'

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst SAN FRANCISCO (P)— Democrats and Republicans, both anxious to avoid angering the white South and losing its votes, have backed off from saying they approve the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation.

This was a victory for Southern White delegates to both conventions. Hugely outnumbered, they fought against endorsement of the court's decision in their parties' campaign platforms.

Both parties—Democrats at Chicago, Republicans here—have produced compromise platform planks on civil rights. They could hardly ignore the court's decision. So they mentioned it. But they didn't endorse it.

May Astonish Some
This may astonish people outside the United States since the court's ruling has the effect of national law; and no matter which party wins, it will have to back the law and do whatever may be necessary to enforce it.

But both parties are conscious of the box office election receipts. If the Nov. 6 balloting is close, the Southern vote may mean the difference between triumph and defeat.

The Republicans' plank says they "accept" the court's decision. It might seem nothing less could he said since the decision is national law. But the Democrats managed to do less. They surrounded their plank in fog.

Hope To Split And Win
It has long been a Republican hope to split up and then win away the traditionally Democratic South. The GOP had some success in 1952 when four Southern states voted for President Eisenhower. They were Texas, Virginia, Florida and Tennessee.

But the 1952 election also provided an example of how important the South is to the Democrats. The only states which voted that year for Adlai Stevenson were seven Southern and two border states.

They were North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and West Virginia.

What They Say
Here is what the two parties said about the Supreme Court decision:

Republican — "The Republican party accepts the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court that racial discrimination in publicly supported schools must be progressively eliminated. We concur in the conclusion of the Supreme Court that its decision directing school desegregation 'should be accomplished with all deliberate speed' locally through federal district courts."

Then the Republicans went a little further than the Democrats by adding:

"Progress must be encouraged and the work of the courts supported in every legal manner by all branches of the federal government to the end that the constitutional ideal of equality before the law, regardless of race, creed or color, will be steadily achieved."

Like Shadow Boxing
The Democrats declared what everyone knew: that the Supreme Court's decisions are "the supreme law of the land," and they said:

"Recent decisions of the Supreme Court . . . relating to segregation in publicly supported schools and elsewhere have brought consequences of vast importance to our nation as a whole and especially to communities directly affected.

"We reject all proposals for the use of force to interfere with the orderly determination of these matters by the courts."

What that means is anyone's guess — it's like boxing with shadows — since no responsible leader in either party has so far suggested the use of force.

But what either party would do if Southern states defied federal district court orders to desegregate their schools is something both parties said nothing about.

HARRISBURG (P)—The Public Utility Commission disclosed late yesterday that it has disapproved a request of the New York Central Railroad for permission to continue use of warning bells at a grade crossing Brown Twp., Lycoming County.

The commission ordered the railroad to install automatic flashing signals. The PUC found that restricted sight distances at the crossing constitute a hazard.

Pressure's On Brooklyn And Cincinnati While Braves Lead With Spahn, Burdette, Buhl

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Nobody's won the pennant yet in that hectic National League race, but as of today the pressure definitely is on Brooklyn and Cincinnati while the first-place Milwaukee Braves, loaded with the best pitching in the league, play it cool behind Burdette, Spahn and Buhl.

Those three top the NL's earned run averages. Lew Burdette has managed to knock off Cincinnati's contending Redlegs four times without defeat. Bob Buhl has beat out Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers six times without a loss. Warren Spahn and Burdette combined to salvage an important split in the four-game series at Cincinnati. Spahn quieted the ambitious Redlegs Sunday, then came back in relief to get the final out as Burdette beat them 3-1 on a five-hitter last night.

Braves Bolster Lead
The Braves lack the Redlegs' power, but they again made their blows pay off in the series finale, riding in on home runs by Ed Mathews and Joe Adcock although held to just four hits by Brooks Lawrence.

It was the only game scheduled in either league and hoisted the Braves into a 2½-game lead as they return to Milwaukee for a home stand. Brooklyn, slated to play five games against the Redlegs and Braves in five straight days this weekend, has a one-game bulge over the third-place Cincy at the moment.

Mathews' 28th home run followed a two-out second-inning triple by Hank Aaron that broke through Lawrence's hitless spell. Then Adcock hammered his 30th homer with two out in the sixth for the Braves' third hit off the 16-7 right-hander, who now has lost five of his last six decisions.

16 For Burdette
Burdette was rolling along on a three-hit shutout for eight innings. Then rookie Frank Robinson walloped his 30th homer to lead off the ninth. A walk followed, but Ted Kluszewski hit into a double play that eased the situation for Burdette.

But when Wally Post lined a single, Manager Fred Haney waved in southpaw Spahn. He got Ed Bailey on a game-ending grounder. That nailed Burdette's 16th success against seven defeats and put his ERA at 2.46—tops in the majors.

SEEKS TO BAN HANOVER NAME

DETROIT, Mich. (P) — Racing commissioners in 12 states were asked today to help ban the use of the word "Hanover" in the naming of standard bred horses. Donald D. McFarland of Detroit, president of harness tracks of America, Inc. said President L.B. Sheppard of the United States Trotting Assn. is exploiting harness racing by use of the Hanover name.

Sheppard is president of Hanover Shoe, Inc., of Hanover, Pa., and a principal owner of Hanover Shoe Farms, Inc., breeders of trotters and pacers. McFarland told the racing commissioners in telegrams today that use of "Hanover" for standard bred violates the USTA code which stipulates "trade names or names claimed for advertising purposes" must not be used. He said any action to correct the "unsavory situation" must come from the racing commissioners. McFarland said USTA Executive Vice President Don Miller had "summarily" dismissed a complaint by directors of harness tracks of America "without investigation."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Schenectady Blue Jays, with an assist from the schedule-makers, are in a commanding position to challenge the Binghamton Triplets for the pennant in the closing weeks of the Eastern League campaign.

A half-game behind the league leaders, the Jays have a 25-game slate including 22 contests against second division clubs. Eleven games are at Schenectady Stadium.

On the other hand, Binghamton faces 17 away games in a 28-game window, 18 of which are against first division clubs. Seven of those games will be against third-place Reading, the defending champion.

Schenectady moved a half-game closer last night in edging Albany, 8-4, in the Senator's backyard.

Williamsport pushed Johnstown deeper in the cellar in winning a pair, 9-5 and 4-2.

Allentown at Reading was postponed because of rain.

GAMES TONIGHT

Weather permitting, two games of special importance to their leagues will be played tonight.

The third contest in the best of five-game series between the Elks and the VFW for the playoff championship of the community softball league is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock this evening at Recreation Field. The contest had originally been listed for Monday night but was postponed because of rain. In the event of wet grounds or rain tonight the contest will be played Wednesday.

Also scheduled for tonight is the Bendersville - Mummansburg match which will determine several positions in the South Penn League. The game was postponed some time ago, and then played to a tie.

Stan Dudas Wins Anthracite Title

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (P) — Stan Dudas, pro at the North Hills Country Club in Jenkintown, is the Anthracite Open Champion after firing a four-under par 67 at Wyoming Valley Country Club yesterday.

Terrell Johnson, duPont Country Club, Wilmington, Del., pro, finished second with a 68. John Serafin, Fox Hill Country Club, West Pittston, and John Shorey, Allentown, were next with 71's.

Long Hawk, Rutherford, N. J., was the low amateur with a 73. Stan Starkey of Scranton, and Mark Giles of Reading, were next with 74's.

SAYS BURDETTE VIOLATES ALL PITCHING RULES

CINCINNATI (P) — Lew Burdette, fidgety ace of Milwaukee's vaunted pitching staff, was accused by Birdie Tebbetts today of violating every pitching rule in the book as he beat the Cincinnati Redlegs for the fourth time this season 3-1 last night.

The free-speaking Redleg manager was fairly fuming as he told newsmen "there isn't a pitching rule Burdette doesn't break. He spits on the ball, he spits on his glove, he rubs rosin on his glove and he rubs the ball on his uniform. All these things are in direct violation of rule 8.02. Yet the umpires let him get away with all those things."

Three times Tebbetts rushed out from the dugout to complain to the umpires about Burdette's tactics last night. Each time, Plate Umpire Bill Engeln, together with Larry Goetz, first-base umpire, examined the ball, demanded to look at Burdette's glove and even had the pitcher take off his cap. But they didn't find any indication Lew was throwing a spitter.

Burdette seemed bored by the search.

"I'd even take off my pants if they wanted me to," said the smiling highlander after the game. "Know what I think, Birdie was just trying to rattle me. He's majored in psychology, you know."

NASHUA IS HIT AGAIN BY COLIC

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (P) — Nashua, the millionaire colt insured for more money than most people make in a lifetime, was resting comfortably in his stall today after an attack of colic.

His 82-year-old trainer, Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, still held out hope that he would be able to start in the Saratoga handicap Saturday. The decision will be made tomorrow.

"It's as simple as this," said Mr. Fitz. "If I can't work him out tomorrow, you'll know he won't run in the handicap Saturday. Right now, I still don't know just how he will feel."

"But I'm going to do whatever I think is best for Nashua. Nothing else will be considered."

Nashua, insured for $1,251,200 at a premium of $50,048 a year, was sick for the second time in 10 days. A week ago last Saturday, he had to be scratched.

from the $100,000 Atlantic City Handicap for the same ailment.

Mr. Fitz was puzzled over Nashua's two illnesses.

"He's never been really sick," he said. "We know something's wrong with him when he paws at the floor of his stall and acts restless."

Gettysburg High School coaches are looking over 41 prospects this week with the hope that they can see prospects of victory growing from a relatively green football squad.

Double practices are being held for the squad daily this week in anticipation of the opening of the season at Westminster September 7.

Coach Howard Shoemaker noted that out of the 41 who reported for practice this week, five are lettermen from last year. Of the group center Robert Hess, a 176-pound senior, served both on offense and defense last year.

The other lettermen, Senior Ralph Heffner, and Juniors Rex Baltzley, Kenneth Keefe and Earl Little, all were defensive players last season.

Always A Question

As to the rest—"some look promising, some don't and no one will know until the season opens whether the ones who look good, or the ones that look fair will be the big stars for the year," the coaches observe.

In the squad's favor is weight. The average for the 41 candidates is 157 pounds, a little heavier than in prior years. Three members of the potential squad tip the scales at 200 or more. A few more are up in the 180-pound class. But a good proportion are also in the range from 118 (lightest of the candidates) to 130 pounds.

There are 11 seniors on the squad: John Fessel, John King, Gary Keefe, Richard Pyle, Albert Poole, John Bream, Charles Washington, Charles

TENTH ANNUAL LITTLE LEAGUE SERIES OPENS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (P) — A field of veteran Little League teams and new challengers squared off today for the opening of the 10th annual Little League World Series.

Four of the eight teams were in the World Series last year, something that has never happened before. But, ironically, the 1955 champion, Morrisville, Pa., was eliminated in preliminary competition.

All of the teams will be contending through the week for the world baseball championship among boys between 9 and 12 years of age. They are the cream of more than 4,000 franchised teams in every state but South Carolina and in a dozen foreign countries.

The repeating teams this year are Delaware Twp. N. J.; Hamtramck, Mich.; Auburn, Ala., and Winchester, Mass.

All but the Michigan entry were in the semifinal round last year. Auburn beat Winchester, 1-0, in the consolation game.

The opening 1956 game matched Eastchester, N. Y., and Delaware Twp. N. J., today. The New Jersey team was last year's runner-up.

Other first-round games, leading to Friday's final, are scheduled Hamtramck vs. Colton, Calif.; Auburn, Ala., vs. Winchester, Mass., and Upper Darby, Pa., vs. Roswell, N. M.

In addition to Delaware Twp., another national runner-up is in the field. Colton lost to Schenectady, N. Y., in the final two years ago.

TEX GONZALEZ BEATS ITALIAN

NEW YORK (P) — Crowd-pleasing Tony (Tex) Gonzalez, may be in line for a Madison Square Garden main event as the result of his decision triumph over Italy's Fernando Spallotta.

The free-swinging, 23-year-old East Orange, N.J., middleweight, racked up his third straight victory last night on a unanimous 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena.

"I think this win earned Tex a Garden main event," said Sam Rosen, Gonzalez' manager, today. "Billy Brown (Garden matchmaker) wants us to come in and talk business. Tex has had several semi-windups at the Garden and has made a fine impression."

Gonzalez, an ex-soldier, finished strong to earn the verdict over the energetic, 25-year-old Italian by these scores: Referee Art Mercante, 6-2-2; Judge Joe Eppie 6-4, and Judge Art Aidaia, 6-3-1.

A partisan crowd of 1,271 braved the rain to cheer Gonzalez to victory in the televised bout. The gross gate was $2,498.

Gonzalez, a 2-1 choice, weighed 159 to Spallotta's 160.

from the $100,000 Atlantic City Handicap for the same ailment.

Mr. Fitz was puzzled over Nashua's two illnesses.

"He's never been really sick," he said. "We know something's wrong with him when he paws at the floor of his stall and acts restless."

Bell Averts Rams' Plans For Boycott

LOS ANGELES (P) — The intervention of National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell has helped avert a possible Los Angeles player boycott of Friday's exhibition game here between the Los Angeles Rams and the Cleveland Browns.

Ram players had demanded $75 a week for veterans and $50 weekly for rookies during the exhibition season, whereas the Los Angeles club never has paid salaries until after the first league game. Ram player representatives told General Manager Tex Schramm they didn't intend to play exhibition games unless they were paid for them. The Rams, who won their division title last year, open their NFL season Sept. 30.

Bell called the Rams' player representatives at their Redlands camp and asked them to delay any reprisal in connection with their money demands, saying he would speak with club owners.

WGCT Will Air Eagles' Games

The 12 National Football League games to be played by the Philadelphia Eagles this fall will be broadcast for sports fans in this area by station WGCT, it was announced today.

Byrum Saam, Claude Haring and Bill Campbell, widely known sports announcers, will handle the play-by-play description of the games on this radio schedule, which is being sponsored by The Atlantic Refining Company and Marlboro Cigarettes.

The first league game covered will be the opener with Los Angeles on the West Coast on September 30. The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

October 6, Redskins; October 14, Steelers; October 21, Cardinals; October 28, Giants; November 4, Cardinals; November 11, Steelers; November 18, Browns; November 25, San Francisco; December 2, Browns; December 9, Redskins, and December 15, Giants.

Always A Question

As to the rest—"some look promising, some don't and no one will know until the season opens whether the ones who look good, or the ones that look fair will be the big stars for the year," the coaches observe.

In the squad's favor is weight. The average for the 41 candidates is 157 pounds, a little heavier than in prior years. Three members of the potential squad tip the scales at 200 or more. A few more are up in the 190-pound class. But a good proportion are also in the range from 118 (lightest of the candidates) to 130 pounds.

There are 11 seniors on the squad: John Fessel, John King, Gary Keefe, Richard Pyle, Albert Poole, John Bream, Charles Washington, Charles

TENTH ANNUAL LITTLE LEAGUE SERIES OPENS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A field of veteran Little League teams and new challengers squared off today for the opening of the 10th annual Little League World Series.

Four of the eight teams were in the World Series last year, something that has never happened before. But, ironically, the 1955 champion, Morrisville, Pa., was eliminated in preliminary competition.

All of the teams will be contending through the week for the world baseball championship among boys between 8 and 12 years of age. They are the cream of more than 4,000 franchised teams in every state but South Carolina and in a dozen foreign countries.

The repeating teams this year are Delaware Twp. N. J.; Hamtramck, Mich.; Auburn, Ala., and Winchester, Mass.

All but the Michigan entry were in the semifinal round last year. Auburn beat Winchester, 1-0, in the consolation game.

The opening 1956 game matched Eastchester, N. Y., and Delaware Twp., N. J., today. The New Jersey team was last year's runner-up.

Other first-round games, leading to Friday's final, are scheduled Hamtramck vs. Colton, Calif.; Auburn, Ala., vs. Winchester, Mass., and Upper Darby, Pa., vs. Roswell, N. M.

In addition to Delaware Twp., another national runner-up is in the field. Colton lost to Schenectady, N. Y., in the final two years ago.

TEX GONZALEZ BEATS ITALIAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Crowd-pleasing Tony (Tex) Gonzalez, may be in line for a Madison Square Garden main event as the result of his decision triumph over Italy's Fernando Spallotta.

The free-speaking, 23-year-old East Orange, N.J., middleweight, racked up his third straight victory last night on a unanimous 10-round decision at St. Nicholas Arena.

"I think this win earned Tex a Garden main event," said Sam Rose, Gonzalez's manager, today. "Billy Brown (Garden matchmaker) wants us to come in and talk business. Tex has had several semi-windups at the Garden and has made a fine impression."

Gonzalez, an ex-soldier, finished strong to earn the verdict over the energetic, 25-year-old Italian by these scores: Referee Art Mercante, 6-2-2; Judge Joe Eppy 6-4, and Judge Artie Aidala, 6-3-1.

A partisan crowd of 1,271 braved the rain to cheer Gonzalez to victory in the televised bout. The gross gate was $2,498.

Gonzalez, a 2-1 choice, weighed 159 to Spallotta's 160.

from the $100,000 Atlantic City Handicap for the same ailment. Mr. Fitz was puzzled over Nashua's two illnesses.

"He's never been really sick," he said. "We know something's wrong with him when he paws at the floor of his stall and acts restless."

Bell Averts Rams' Plans For Boycott

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The intervention of National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell has helped avert a possible Los Angeles player boycott of Friday's exhibition game here between the Los Angeles Rams and the Cleveland Browns.

Ram players had demanded $75 a week for veterans and $50 weekly for rookies during the exhibition season, whereas the Los Angeles club never has paid salaries until after the first league game. Ram player representatives told General Manager Tex Schramm they didn't intend to play exhibition games unless they were paid for them. The Rams, who won their division title last year, open their NFL season Sept. 30.

Bell called the Rams' player representatives at their Redlands camp and asked them to delay any reprisal in connection with their money demands, saying he would speak with club owners.

WGET Will Air Eagles' Games

The 12 National Football League games to be played by the Philadelphia Eagles this fall will be broadcast for sports fans in this area by station WGET, it was announced today.

Byrum Saam, Claude Haring and Bill Campbell, widely known sports announcers, will handle the play-by-play description of the games on this radio schedule, which is being sponsored by The Atlantic Refining Company and Marlboro Cigarettes.

The first league game covered will be the opener with Los Angeles on the West Coast on September 30. The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

October 6, Redskins; October 14, Steelers; October 21, Cardinals; October 28, Giants; November 4, Cardinals; November 11, Steelers; November 18, Browns; November 25, San Francisco; December 2, Browns; December 9, Redskins, and December 15, Giants.

The selection had placed the PTI in the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Harris announced this week.

MORE THAN 800 IN TRAP SHOOT

By FRITZ HOWELL

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—The little fellows get their chance at gold and glory today as the week-long 57th Grand American Trap Shoot swings into its second day.

Class championships in which all shooters fire against those of comparable ability instead of against the hotshots were to be decided in a 200-target, 16-yard race.

A year ago, 782 fired in the class races but more than 800 were expected to jam the firing line today. A host of minor titles were decided yesterday as 652 entrants from all parts of North America participated in a program similar to today's.

Six of the country's best known marksmen tied at 200 of 200 in yesterday's "Introductory." They were Ned Lilly, Stanton, Mich., who passed up the ensuing shoot-off; Joe Hiestand, of Hillsboro; Dan Orlich of Reno, Nev., former Northwestern University and Green Bay Packer football star; Buford Bailey, 30-year-old rancher from Big Springs, Neb.; Mercer Tenselle, grey-haired star from Shreveport, La., and George H. Newmaster, All-American crackshot from Lebanon, Pa.

Bailey and Tenselle dropped out in a shoot-off as Hiestand, Orlich and Newmaster broke another 50 without a miss. The shoot-off, halted by darkness, was to be continued today.

FACES PENALTY FOR POUNDAGE

FT. CARSON, Colo. (AP)—An Army mess sergeant says he's to be court-martialed because he's overweight.

Penalties for poundage were decreed by Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Walthington, who said a handful of his 8th Infantry Division officers and men failed to peel off excess fat as ordered.

Sgt. L. C. James Love, 34, a veteran of 12 years and two wars, is the only one protesting. He has asked a general court-martial rather than the customary summary court-martial. This, he said, will give him a better opportunity to explain his position.

Officers Required
Under summary court-martial procedure, only one officer hears the arguments. At least five officers are required in a general court-martial.

"I weighed 276 pounds when I returned to the States from Germany in October 1954," said Love, who is married and the father of four children. "Now I'm down to 212 and I'm going to be court-martialed."

The mess sergeant says he was ordered to trim down to 193 pounds, but no time limit was specified.

Sick, Breakdown
"I lost 25 pounds in the six months I've been here," he said, "and that's about my limit. I was sick as a child, and had a nervous breakdown. I've had to be careful about my weight and my battery commander ordered me to exercise for two hours daily in the gymnasium."

Love, a native of Cincinnati, said he refused the order because he was "afraid of the reaction."

MOUNT IS INVITED TO CAGE TOURNEY

The complete complement of teams invited to the 3rd annual Quantico Invitation basketball tourney in mid-December was announced today. In addition to Mount St. Mary's and Quantico the following teams will compete:

St. Michael's, Winooksi, Vt.; U. of Tampa, Tampa, Fla.; Wabash College, Evansville, Ind.; Hampden-Sydney College, Hampden-Sydney, Va.; Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, N. C. and Moravian College, Bethlehem, Pa.

The Mountaineers and Wabash are the only repeaters from last year's tourney which the Marines won by beating Mount St. Mary's.

For the first time the hosts have invited two Mason-Dixon Conference teams. Last year Hampden-Sydney was a semi-finalist in the fight for the tourney crown won by the Mountaineers for the third straight time.

33 CANDIDATES BEGIN TRAINING AT BIGLERVILLE

With 33 members out for the squad Coach Thomas Faulkner started "camp" today for the 1956 edition of the Biglerville High School football squad.

Faulkner said the squad will have intensive practice each morning and evening at the Biglerville High School field and the afternoons will be devoted to individual practice.

The squad will be heading for a season starting September 14 at Shippensburg and ending November 10 at Kennard Dale.

Of the nine games scheduled six will be played on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock, under lights. Three, with Susquehannock, Dallastown and Kennard Dale will be Saturday afternoon affairs, all scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Coach Served In Korea

Coach Faulkner, a graduate of Gettysburg College where he was an outstanding halfback, played his last season at Gettysburg six years ago, in 1950 — although he didn't graduate from the local college until 1954. The difference was caused by his induction into the Army while still in college. While with the Army he coached at Fort Benning and was coach for the 14th Infantry Regiment team in Korea.

A West Philadelphia native, he was an Upper Darby High School player before coming to Gettysburg College and after his return from Army service and graduation from college, he served as a coach for St. Joseph's High School at Philadelphia before accepting the coaching position at Biglerville this season.

The Biglerville schedule follows: September 14, Shippensburg, away; 22, Scotland, home; 29, Boiling Springs, away; October 5, West York, home; 12, Littlestown, home; 20, Susquehannock, away; 27, Cumberland Valley, at home; November 3, Dallastown, away; 10, Kennard Dale, away.

Court Martial Ends; Trial Board Fired

FT. DIX, N.J. (AP)—The court martial of a former Ft. Dix post quartermaster ended abruptly yesterday when a judge advocate disqualified the trial board.

The ruling came on the heels of a defense charge that the commanding general here was prejudiced when he ordered the trial.

The trial involved Col. Robert A. Gaw, 47, who was specifically accused of accepting dinners and lunches from representatives of firms doing business with the Army base.

Lt. Col. William A. Hunt, the trial judge advocate, ruled that either the charges be reduced or that the 1st Army can hold another court martial at a higher level.

7 ON COMMISSION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader yesterday named seven members to the Washington Crossing Park Commission.

The new members are: Mrs. Elmore R. Ridge, Morrisville; Isadore A. Shrager, Philadelphia; Thomas E. Priory, Bristol; Emil J. Lever, Solebury; Irving G. Schorsch, Feasterville; J. Carroll Molly Jr., Doylestown, and Donald E. Delacey, New Hope.

PENNSYLVANIA GOP DELEGATES ARE FOR NIXON

By HAROLD V. STREETER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania's 70-vote delegation went to Monday's opening of the Republican National Convention pledged anew to back Richard Nixon.

The new pledge came after the vice president told them in a personal appearance he wanted a victory for President Eisenhower "regardless of the outcome of myself personally."

Shortly after Nixon addressed a dinner caucus of the Pennsylvania delegation Sunday night, State Sen. M. Harvey Taylor of Harrisburg, moved for reaffirmation of the stand taken for Nixon, in Philadelphia, May 19.

No opposition showed when U.S. Sen. Edward Martin, the delegation chairman, called for a standing vote.

Nation Needs Ike
Nixon, who appeared briefly with his wife at the Fairmount Hotel gathering, told the delegates the nation needs the leadership of Eisenhower, "man of the century," and that whatever else happens in the convention "pales in significance."

In support of Taylor's motion, Raymond Pitcairn, Bryn Athyn attorney, deplored the efforts of Harold Stassen to dump Nixon in favor of Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts.

Pitcairn said Stassen's activities were "colored by ambitions of his own," and expressed the hope that Stassen belatedly would "get behind the greatest vice president (Nixon) we have ever had."

Duff At Dinner
Sen. James H. Duff, who had stepped out in favor of Martin as delegation chairman after taking a licking over the state chairmanship, squeezed time between afternoon and night sessions of the Platform Committee to be at the dinner and add to the show of harmony.

Hobson R. Reynolds, alternate delegate from Philadelphia, failed in a spirited effort to have the delegation go on record in favor of a strong civil rights plank in advance of the Platform Committee's report.

Duff Is Praised
Reynolds, speaking after Martin tried vainly to have him resume his seat, was silenced only after George Bloom, Pennsylvania state chairman, assured the alternate his resolution for a strong plank had been given Duff and was being pushed ardently in the Platform Committee.

Reynolds, jousting with Bloom for the floor, praised Duff—who by then had returned to the Platform Committee session—but expressed concern lest forces of moderation would prevail over him.

"I believe that James Duff and President Eisenhower, if they are to carry Pennsylvania, must depend on the Negro vote in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh," he half-shouted while Martin and Bloom sought to quiet him.

Will Be Heard
Reynolds sat down only after Martin and Bloom assured him that, should word from the Platform Committee not be satisfactory to him, he would have an opportunity to raise the issue anew at a breakfast caucus of the delegation this morning—some hours before the platform goes before the convention.

Martin told the delegates that Pennsylvania Republican workers face a "financial job that is not easy." He pointed out that the State Capitol now is in charge of the Democrats and that in the past state employees have supplied half a million dollars toward the

ANNIVERSARY OF FT. AUGUSTA TO BE OBSERVED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Historical and Museum Commission today hailed the 200th anniversary celebration of the building of Ft. Augusta as of "outstanding significance to the commonwealth."

Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the commission, said in advance of the Sunbury celebration next week that:

"Ft. Augusta is of outstanding significance and is one of the most important historic properties governed by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission."

Stevens is scheduled to deliver one of the main addresses during the Aug. 26-29 celebration. His topic will be "the Ft. Augusta Story."

The fort was situated in what is now the city of Sunbury and was Pennsylvania's stronghold in the Upper-Susquehanna Valley from the French and Indian War to the close of the American Revolution.

It was first constructed by Col. William Clapham under orders from Gov. Morris as part of the British defense against the raids of the French and Indians from the Upper Allegheny region and was later used in the protection of settlers.

The strategic location of the fort where the north and west branches of the Susquehanna flow into the main stem prevented the movement of French troops from the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys to reinforce their Eastern New York garrisons.

Variety Of Exhibits
Its strength and position discouraged any attack and Ft. Augusta never endured a siege.

The Museum Commission has already sent a series of exhibits to the fort as part of the celebration and as a permanent addition campaign.

"It is now necessary to make that up in other places," he said without elaboration.

Martin said he believed the Democrats already have given up on winning the presidential and vice presidential spots to concentrate on the Congressional races, then wound up the dinner meeting with the exhortation:

"Go out and fight for Jim Duff."

Leader Accused Of "Smear Campaign"

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Republican Floor Leader Smith says a "smear campaign" was launched by Gov. Leader against the GOP to divert attention from the "costly bungling" of his administration.

"It is all part of a gigantic scheme to keep the people from finding out the truth about the costly bungling and gross incompetence of Gov. Leader's administration," Smith said in a weekend statement.

Smith is the Republican candidate for auditor general in November.

York Student Is New Peach Queen

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Lois Demmy, 16-year-old high school student from Ephrata, is Pennsylvania's peach queen for 1956-57.

She was selected from five contestants Saturday for baking a molded peach gold almond cream pie. Miss Demmy succeeds Marjorie Kamm, Shippensburg R.D. 3.

The winner was chosen mainly for her baking ability but consideration was given to personality, poise and appearance.

Second place went to Janice Wiser, 17, Shippensburg R.D. 3, while Peggy Alloway, 16, Stewardstown, was third.

to the historic site.

The exhibits include models depicting the logging industry and canals during the period, documents dealing with construction and use of the fort, canal boat scenes and steel tomahawks used by the Indians in the French and Indian War.

Among highlights of the celebration will be an outdoor drama entitled "Augusta, Fortress Invincible" and Indian ceremonies at the grave of Chief Shikellamy who is buried near the fort.

Among scheduled speakers are Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, chief of research and development for the U.S. Army and a native of Mount Carmel, and G.P.H. Boycott of the British Military Mission, Washington, D.C.

The present day fort site consists of the Hunter Mansion, built by the grandson of the fort's last commander, Col. Samuel Hunter, and a small tract containing the original well and powder magazine used by the fort.

A one-sixth scale model of the fort is located in front of the mansion.

HALL PLEDGES OPEN SESSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall Monday pledged a "free and open convention" on nomination of presidential and vice presidential candidates, and adoption of a platform.

Presiding over the opening session of the GOP convention, Hall told the delegates in a prepared speech:

"You, and you alone, will choose our presidential nominee, our vice presidential nominee, and adopt the platform of our party."

The renomination of President Eisenhower is a foregone conclusion, and the selection of Vice President Nixon to run with him again is regarded as a virtual certainty—despite the efforts of presidential aide Harold E. Stassen to replace Nixon on the ticket with Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts.

Cites Dem's Hard Words
Hall laced his brief speech with digs at the Democrats, who last week nominated Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

"There is nothing that we need say about Adlai Stevenson that Kefauver hasn't already said," Hall told the delegates, referring to some of the hard words exchanged by Stevenson and Kefauver when they were battling in presidential primaries last spring.

"There is nothing that we need say about the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket that Harry Truman hasn't already said," Hall added.

The GOP chairman was alluding to remarks made by former President Truman who said he didn't think much of Stevenson as a fighter and he criticized Stevenson's espousal of "moderation." Later, when Stevenson won the nomination, Truman took it back and pledged his full support to the Democratic ticket.

FOUR PERSONS ARE KILLED IN 2 ACCIDENTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Six persons were killed in traffic accidents in south-central Pennsylvania over the weekend. Two of the accidents resulted in double fatalities.

Among those killed was George W. (Jack) Davis, 44, Palmyra, an orchestra leader who was returning from an engagement at nearby Middletown.

Davis and Gordon Josselyn, 26, of Colonial Park near Harrisburg, were killed in a head-on collision on U. S. 230 in Steelton early Sunday. Josselyn's son, Gordon Jr., 2, was seriously injured.

In the other double fatal accident William A. Teeny Sr., 84, and his wife, Mae, 78, were killed in a car-station wagon collision on U. S. 30, nine miles west of Chambersburg.

A York couple, Mrs. Sarah Kudrey, 54, and her husband, Albert, 48, were admitted to Chambersburg Hospital. Mrs. Kudrey, who suffered shock and bruises, was reported in critical condition. Kudrey suffered multiple cuts.

Three other persons, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Burd and their son, William R., 9, escaped injury in the crash. State police said the Kudreys were passengers in the station wagon driven by Burd. Mrs. Vera D. Dyarman, 53, Carlisle R. 5, was killed on Sunday in a three-car collision at the intersection of U. S. 15 and Rt. 114 six miles north of Dillsburg, York County.

Two of her sons, Roy E., 16, and Jay A., 12, suffered minor injuries and were treated at Harrisburg Hospital. Her husband, John, 60, the driver of the car, escaped injury.

Operators of the other two cars, Clayton H. Fassanella, 47, Cheverly, Md., and Wilbur E. Sough, 17, Dillsburg R. D. 3, also escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Mabel Altland, 65, of Bair Station, York County, was killed instantly Saturday night in an auto-truck collision on U. S. 30 near Thomasville, York County. Her husband, John, 66, suffered minor injuries. The truck driver, Wilson Gates, Alum Bank, Bedford County, was not hurt.

Deputy Sheriff Is Abducted, Beaten

EASTON, Md. (AP)—A Virginia deputy sheriff found near here Monday said he had been abducted by three thugs, pistol whipped and driven at least 115 miles before being dumped six hours later.

Deputy Warner Davis of Onancock, Va., was spotted lying along U.S. 213 near Wye Mills, about 11 miles north of Easton and 115 miles north of Onancock.

Taken to Easton Memorial Hospital, he was reported to have suffered a cerebral concussion and cuts of the head and hands.

A 14-state police lookout was issued for the car in which he said he was abducted, a faded yellow four-door sedan with Pennsylvania license plates.

PENNSYLVANIA GOP DELEGATES ARE FOR NIXON

By HAROLD V. STREETER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania's 70-vote delegation went to Monday's opening of the Republican National Convention pledged anew to back Richard Nixon.

The new pledge came after the vice president told them in a personal appearance he wanted a victory for President Eisenhower "regardless of the outcome of myself personally."

Shortly after Nixon addressed a dinner of the Pennsylvania delegation Sunday night, State Sen. M. Harvey Taylor of Harrisburg, moved for reaffirmation of the stand taken for Nixon, in Philadelphia, May 19.

No opposition showed when U.S. Sen. Edward Martin, the delegation chairman, called for a standing vote.

Nation Needs Ike

Nixon, who appeared briefly with his wife at the Fairmount Hotel gathering, told the delegates the nation needs the leadership of Eisenhower, "man of the century," and that whatever else happens in the convention "pales in significance."

In support of Taylor's motion, Raymond Pitcairn, Bryn Athyn attorney, deplored the efforts of Harold Stassen to dump Nixon in favor of Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts.

Pitcairn said Stassen's activities were "colored by ambitions of his own," and expressed the hope that Stassen belatedly would "get behind the greatest vice president (Nixon) we have ever had."

Duff At Dinner

Sen. James H. Duff, who had stepped out in favor of Martin as delegation chairman after taking a licking over the state chairmanship, squeezed time between afternoon and night sessions of the Platform Committee to be at the dinner and add to the show of harmony.

Hobson R. Reynolds, alternate delegate from Philadelphia, failed in a spirited effort to have the delegation go on record in favor of a strong civil rights plank in advance of the Platform Committee's report.

Duff Is Praised

Reynolds, speaking after Martin tried vainly to have him resume his seat, was silenced only after George Bloom, Pennsylvania state chairman, assured the alternate his resolution for a strong plank had been given Duff and was being pushed ardently in the Platform Committee.

Reynolds, jousting with Bloom for the floor, praised Duff—who by then had returned to the Platform Committee session—but expressed concern lest forces of moderation would prevail over him.

"I believe that James Duff and President Eisenhower, if they are to carry Pennsylvania, must depend on the Negro vote in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh," he half-shouted while Martin and Bloom sought to quiet him.

Will Be Heard

Reynolds sat down only after Martin and Bloom assured him that, should word from the Platform Committee not be satisfactory to him, he would have an opportunity to raise the issue anew at a breakfast caucus of the delegation this morning—some hours before the platform goes before the convention.

Martin told the delegates that Pennsylvania Republican workers face a "financial job that is not easy." He pointed out that the State Capitol now is in charge of the Democrats and that in the past state employees have supplied half a million dollars toward the

ANNIVERSARY OF FT. AUGUSTA TO BE OBSERVED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Historical and Museum Commission today hailed the 200th anniversary celebration of the building of Ft. Augusta as of "outstanding significance to the commonwealth."

Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the commission, said in advance of the Sunbury celebration next week that:

"Ft. Augusta is of outstanding significance and is one of the most important historic properties governed by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission."

Stevens is scheduled to deliver one of the main addresses during the Aug. 26-29 celebration. His topic will be "the Ft. Augusta Story."

The fort was situated in what is now the city of Sunbury and was Pennsylvania's stronghold in the Upper-Susquehanna Valley from the French and Indian War to the close of the American Revolution.

It was first constructed by Col. William Clapham under orders from Gov. Morris as part of the British defense against the raids of the French and Indians from the Upper Allegheny region and was later used in the protection of settlers.

The strategic location of the fort where the north and west branches of the Susquehanna flow into the main stem prevented the movement of French troops from the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys to reinforce their Eastern New York garrisons.

Variety Of Exhibits

Its strength and position discouraged any attack and Ft. Augusta never endured a siege.

The Museum Commission has already sent a series of exhibits to the fort as part of the celebration and as a permanent addition

Leader Accused Of "Smear Campaign"

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Republican Floor Leader Smith says a "smear campaign" was launched by Gov. Leader against the GOP to divert attention from the "costly bungling" of his administration.

"It is all part of a gigantic scheme to keep the people from finding out the truth about the costly bungling and gross incompetence of Gov. Leader's administration," Smith said in a weekend statement.

Smith is the Republican candidate for auditor general in November.

York Student Is New Peach Queen

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Lois Demmy, 16-year-old high school student from Ephrata, is Pennsylvania's peach queen for 1956-57.

She was selected from five contestants Saturday for baking a molded peach gold almond cream pie. Miss Demmy succeeds Marjorie Kann, Shippensburg R.D. 2.

The winner was chosen mainly for her baking ability but consideration was given to personality, poise and appearance.

Second place went to Janice Wiser, 17, Shippensburg R.D. 3, while Peggy Alloway, 16, Stewardstown, was third.

to the historic site

The exhibits include models depicting the logging industry and canals during the period, documents dealing with construction and use of the fort, canal boat scenes and steel tomahawks used by the Indians in the French and Indian War.

Among highlights of the celebration will be an outdoor drama entitled "Augusta, Fortress Invincible" and Indian ceremonies at the grave of Chief Shikellamy who is buried near the fort.

Among scheduled speakers are Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, chief of research and development for the U.S. Army and a native of Mount Carmel, and G.P.H. Boycott of the British Military Mission, Washington, D.C.

The present day fort site consists of the Hunter Mansion, built by the grandson of the fort's last commander, Col. Samuel Hunter, and a small tract containing the original well and powder magazine used by the fort.

A one-sixth scale model of the fort is located in front of the mansion.

HALL PLEDGES OPEN SESSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall Monday pledged a "free and open convention" on nomination of presidential and vice presidential candidates, and adoption of a platform.

Presiding over the opening session of the GOP convention, Hall told the delegates in a prepared speech:

"You, and you alone, will choose our presidential nominee, our vice presidential nominee, and adopt the platform of our party."

The renomination of President Eisenhower is a foregone conclusion, and the selection of Vice President Nixon to run with him again is regarded as a virtual certainty—despite the efforts of presidential aide Harold E. Stassen to replace Nixon on the ticket with Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts.

Cites Dem's Hard Words

Hall laced his brief speech with diggs at the Democrats, who last week nominated Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

"There is nothing that we need say about Adlai Stevenson that Kefauver hasn't already said," Hall told the delegates, referring to some of the hard words exchanged by Stevenson and Kefauver when they were battling in presidential primaries last spring.

"There is nothing that we need say about the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket that Harry Truman hasn't already said," Hall added.

The GOP chairman was alluding to remarks made by former President Truman who said he didn't think much of Stevenson as a fighter and he criticized Stevenson's espousal of "moderation."

Later, when Stevenson won the nomination, Truman took it back and pledged his full support to the Democratic ticket.

FOUR PERSONS ARE KILLED IN 2 ACCIDENTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Six persons were killed in traffic accidents in south-central Pennsylvania over the weekend. Two of the accidents resulted in double fatalities.

Among those killed was George W. (Jack) Davis, 44, Palmyra, an orchestra leader who was returning from an engagement at nearby Middletown.

Davis and Gordon Josselyn, 26, of Colonial Park near Harrisburg, were killed in a head-on collision on U. S. 230 in Steelton early Sunday. Josselyn's son, Gordon Jr., 2, was seriously injured.

In the other double fatal accident William A. Teary Sr., 84, and his wife, Mae, 78, were killed in a car-station wagon collision on U. S. 30, nine miles west of Chambersburg.

A York couple, Mrs. Sarah Kudrey, 54, and her husband, Albert, 46, were admitted to Chambersburg Hospital. Mrs. Kudrey, who suffered shock and lacerations, was reported in critical condition. Kudrey suffered multiple cuts.

Three other persons, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Burd and their son, William R., 9, escaped injury in the crash. State police said the Kudreys were passengers in the station wagon driven by Burd.

Mrs. Vera D. Dyanman, 53, Carlisle R. 5, was killed on Sunday in a three-car collision at the intersection of U. S. 15 and Rt. 114 six miles north of Dillsburg, York County.

Two of her sons, Roy E., 16, and Jay A., 12, suffered minor injuries and were treated at Harrisburg Hospital. Her husband, John, 60, the driver of the car, escaped injury.

Operators of the other two cars, Clayton H. Fassanella, 47, Cheverly, Md., and Wilbur E. Sough, 17, Dillsburg R. D. 3, also escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Mabel Alkand, 65, of Bair Station, York County, was killed instantly Saturday night in an auto-truck collision on U. S. 30 near Thomasville, York County. Her husband, John, 66, suffered minor injuries. The truck driver, Wilson Gates, Alum Bank, Bedford County, was not hurt.

Deputy Sheriff Is Abducted, Beaten

EASTON, Md. (AP)—A Virginia deputy sheriff found near here Monday said he had been abducted by three thugs, pistol whipped and driven at least 115 miles before being dumped six hours later.

Deputy Warner Davis of Onancock, Va., was spotted lying along U.S. 213 near Wye Mills, about 11 miles north of Easton and 115 miles north of Onancock.

Taken to Easton Memorial Hospital, he was reported to have suffered a cerebral concussion and cuts of the head and hands.

A 14-state police lookout was issued for the car in which he said he was abducted, a faded yellow four-door sedan with Pennsylvania license plates.

"WHISTLESTOP" CAMPAIGN FOR ADLAI OKAYED

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson gave enthusiastic approval Monday to a drive that will continue without letup until the eve of the election. And it will cover full participation by former President Harry S. Truman and Sen. Estes Kefauver, Stevenson's vice presidential running mate.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, Philadelphia political pro, outlined these plans, still being formulated, as he conferred with the nominee at his farm home near here.

Unconfirmed Reports

There also was no formal confirmation here as yet of reports Stevenson will make an even earlier campaign opener with a non-televised Labor Day address at Detroit. There were reports, also unconfirmed, that Stevenson might speak in New York and Los Angeles, prior to his major TV speech.

Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania announced Saturday that

Mt. Hope

MT. HOPE — H. F. Bell Sr., Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bell Jr. and daughter, Elizabeth, Wilson, N. C., and Nancy Jones, Pink Hill, N. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yoder and daughter, Judy, and son, Larry, Essex, Md., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Currans.

Approximately $400 was taken in at Mt. Hope annual Sunday School picnic August 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gelwicks and Roy E. Metz spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Seibert Gelwicks, Federal St., Chambersburg.

Stevenson would speak Sept. 12 at Harrisburg, Pa.

Campaigning will be concentrated in states where Democratic prospects for victory appear brightest.

Reject Health Issue

The conferees, at a dinner Sunday night in Stevenson's home, rejected any idea of the campaign's making President Eisenhower's health an issue.

"The average American rebels at the thought of a man's illness becoming a focal point in a campaign," Finnegan told reporters.

"You don't thrust a man's illness in his face. The health question is one for the American people to consider for themselves."

Finnegan said Stevenson's headquarters will be moved to Washington "as quickly as possible" and his entire campaign against Eisenhower will be directed from there in coordination with the National Committee.

89 5-Minute Spots

"But don't expect Gov. Stevenson to spend much time in Washington," he added. "He'll be out on the stump from the time the campaign starts."

The Sept. 13 TV address, from a city to be announced later, will be one of six 30-minute major TV talks by the nominee. In addition, Finnegan said, talks by Stevenson and others will be featured in 89 five-minute spot programs to be worked in at the end of popular TV commercial shows.

PAYS FINE, COSTS

G. Chandler Graves, Philadelphia, charged with operating a car with a defective muffler, pleaded guilty and paid a ten dollar fine and costs Saturday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. He was arrested by borough police.

STEVENSON TO WORK HARD IN DOUBTFUL AREA

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson has decided to pin his hopes for the presidency primarily on dawn-to-midnight automobile tours reaching into most of the towns and villages of doubtful states.

The Democratic presidential nominee was reported to have decided that heavy emphasis on automobile caravans will enable him to reach the greatest number of people at the smallest possible cost.

The former Illinois governor worked today on the broad outline of the major addresses he will deliver in key appearances in a grueling campaign leading up to the eve of the election.

Six Big TV Talks

His campaign director, James A. Finnegan, has booked six nationwide 30-minute television talks starting Sept. 13 and 89 five-minute spot TV programs, most featuring talks by Stevenson.

Stevenson has accepted an invitation to address a $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner in Harrisburg, Pa., next month and there were indications this may be his first major televised address.

His staff here said he also is weighing decisions on whether to address a Labor Day rally at Detroit Sept. 3, an appearance before the American Legion convention later that week, and an appearance Sept. 11 before the Liberal party in New York.

Best Use Of Funds

His biggest decision is how to

DAVID DARCY WILL BE GIVEN THIRD APPEAL

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The State Pardons board will hear Sept. 12 the third and possibly the last appeal of David Darcy for commutation of his death sentence in the slaying of a Bucks County man eight years ago.

Darcy, whose clemency appeals were turned down by the board on two previous occasions, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Oct. 1 together with two partners in the crime, Harold Foster, 30, and Harry Zeitz, 25.

A new application for commutation was filed yesterday by J. Dress Pannell, Harrisburg; Charles J. Margiotti, Pittsburgh; and Morton Witkin, Philadelphia, on behalf of the convicted Philadelphia murderer.

The case was scheduled immediately to be heard by the board Sept. 12, said Frank Hean, board secretary.

Darcy, Foster and Zeitz were sentenced to die for slaying William Kelly, 38, during the holdup of the Feasterville Inn, at Feasterville, Bucks County, Dec. 22, 1947.

The trio has received 27 stays of execution while their case was taken through the courts. All three have been in the death house at Rockview Penitentiary, Bellefonte, since March 31, 1951. They were first scheduled to die April 2, 1951.

Hean said he was "reasonably sure" the other two men would file applications for commutation within the next 10 days.

The U. S. Supreme Court rejected a second appeal to that body by Darcy in June. The execution of the other two was held up pending the outcome of the Darcy case.

In his latest application to the pardons board, Darcy, who was 22 at the time of the slaying, relates how it was Zeitz who fired the fatal shots that struck Kelly, a bystander. A fourth accomplice, Felix Capone, pleaded guilty and was given a life term because he was not involved directly in the holdup of the tavern.

Wins Nomination In Utah By 169

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Virtually complete returns gave Boise Atty. Frank Church a 169-vote lead over former Sen. Chen Taylor for Idaho's Democratic nomination for senator today—one week after Idaho voters went to the polls.

Church had 27,959 votes to 27,790 for Taylor, who ran for vice president as a Progressive in 1948 and lost a comeback bid for the Senate in 1954.

Hean said he was "reasonably sure" the other two men would file applications for commutation within the next 10 days.

"WHISTLESTOP" CAMPAIGN FOR ADLAI OKAYED

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson gave enthusiastic approval Monday to an airplane and "whistlestop" train campaign embracing virtually every key state in the country.

He booked time, Sept. 13, for a 40-minute, nationwide television address in a drive that will continue without letup until the eve of the election. And it will cover full participation by former President Harry S. Truman and Sen. Estes Kefauver, Stevenson's vice-presidential running mate.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, Philadelphia political pro, outlined these plans, still being formulated, as he conferred with the nominee at his farm home near here.

Unconfirmed Reports

There also was no formal confirmation here as yet of reports Stevenson will make an even earlier campaign opener with a non-released Labor Day address at Detroit. There were reports, also unconfirmed, that Stevenson might speak in New York and Los Angeles, prior to his major TV speaker.

Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania announced Saturday that

Mt. Hope

MT. HOPE — H. F. Bell Sr., Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bell Jr. and daughter, Elizabeth, Wilson, N. C., and Nancy Jones, Pink Hill, N. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yoder and daughter, Judy, and son, Larry, Essex, Md., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Currens.

Approximately $400 was taken in at Mt. Hope annual Sunday School picnic August 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gelwicks and Roy E. Metz spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Seibert Gelwicks, Federal St., Chambersburg.

Stevenson would speak Sept. 12 at Harrisburg Pa.

Campaigning will be concentrated in states where Democratic prospects for victory appear brightest.

Reject Health Issue

The conferees, at a dinner Sunday night in Stevenson's home, rejected any idea of the campaigner making President Eisenhower's health an issue.

"The average American rebels at the thought of a man's illness becoming a focal point in a campaign," Finnegan told reporters.

"You don't thrust a man's illness in his face. The health question is one for the American people to consider for themselves."

Finnegan said Stevenson's headquarters will be moved to Washington "as quickly as possible" and his entire campaign against Eisenhower will be directed from there in coordination with the National Committee.

30 5-Minute Spots

"But don't expect Gov. Stevenson to spend much time in Washington," he added. "He'll be out on the stump from the time the campaign starts."

The Sept. 13 TV address, from a city to be announced later, will be one of six 30-minute major TV talks by the nominee. In addition, Finnegan said, talks by Stevenson and others will be featured in 60 five-minute spot programs to be worked in at the end of popular TV commercial shows.

PAYS FINE, COSTS

G. Chandler Graves, Philadelphia, charged with operating a car with a defective muffler, pleaded guilty and paid a ten dollar fine and costs Saturday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. He was arrested by borough police.

STEVENSON TO WORK HARD IN DOUBTFUL AREA

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson has decided to pin his hopes for the presidency primarily on dawn-to-midnight automobile tours reaching into most of the towns and villages of doubtful states.

The Democratic presidential nominee was reported to have decided that heavy emphasis on automobile caravans will enable him to reach the greatest number of people at the smallest possible cost.

The former Illinois governor worked today on the broad outline of the major addresses he will deliver in key appearances in a grueling campaign leading up to the eve of the election.

Six Big TV Talks

His campaign director, James A. Finnegan, has booked six nationwide 30-minute television talks starting Sept. 13 and 50 five-minute spot TV programs, most featuring talks by Stevenson.

Stevenson has accepted an invitation to address a $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner in Harrisburg, Pa., next month and there were indications this may be his first major televised address.

His staff here said he also is weighing decisions on whether to address a Labor Day rally at Detroit Sept. 3, an appearance before the American Legion convention later that week, and an appearance Sept. 11 before the Liberal party in New York.

Best Use Of Funds

His biggest decision is how to divide the limited funds now in sight for the campaign. The extent to which he may be able to "whistle-stop" by train depends on the success of the campaign fund raisers. Planes will be used also when time requires.

Stevenson is keenly aware that committees can provide automobile caravans for the cheapest possible movement into communities. He is said to feel that this may be the best possible Democratic bet in providing means of personal contact at a minimum of

DAVID DARCY WILL BE GIVEN THIRD APPEAL

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The State Pardons board will hear Sept. 12 the third—and possibly the last—appeal of David Darcy for commutation of his death sentence in the slaying of a Bucks County man eight years ago.

Darcy, whose clemency appeals were turned down by the board on two previous occasions, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Oct. 1 together with two partners in the crime, Harold Foster, 30, and Harry Zeltz, 25.

A new application for commutation was filed yesterday by J. Dress Pannell, Harrisburg; Charles J. Margiotti, Pittsburgh; and Morton Witkin, Philadelphia, on behalf of the convicted Philadelphia murderer.

The case was scheduled immediately to be heard by the board Sept. 12, said Frank Hean, board secretary.

Darcy, Foster and Zeltz were sentenced to die for slaying William Kelly, 38, during the holdup of the Feasterville Inn, at Feasterville, Bucks County, Dec. 22, 1947.

The trio has received 27 stays of execution while their case was taken through the courts. All three have been in the death house at Rockview Penitentiary, Bellefonte, since March 31, 1951. They were first scheduled to die April 2, 1951.

Hean said he was "reasonably sure" the other two men would file applications for commutation within the next 10 days.

The U. S. Supreme Court rejected a second appeal to that body by Darcy in June. The execution of the other two was held up pending the outcome of the Darcy case.

In his latest application to the pardons board, Darcy, who was 22 at the time of the slaying, relates how it was Zeltz who fired the fatal shots that struck Kelly, a bystander. A fourth accomplice, Felix Capone, pleaded guilty and was given a life term because he was not involved directly in the holdup of the tavern.

Wins Nomination In Utah By 169

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Virtually complete returns gave Boise Atty. Frank Church a 169-vote lead over former Sen. Glen Taylor for Idaho's Democratic nomination for senator today—one week after Idaho voters went to the polls.

Church had 27,959 votes to 27,790 for Taylor, who ran for vice president as a Progressive in 1948 and lost a comeback bid for the Senate in 1954.

EVERYBODY IS HAPPY AS GOP OPENS SESSION

By SAUL PETT
SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The Republican National Convention opened yesterday with a bang from Ted Lewis.

"Is everyone happy?" boomed National Chairman Leonard Hall from the speaker's platform.

"Yes," the audience roared back. That about concluded debate for the day.

The evening session was no less exciting.

A Gentle Sales Talk

Actor Wendell Corey was master of ceremonies. He introduced the music and the flag demonstrations and then, with a flourish, as though the crowd had never met him before, he announced, "Ladies and gentlemen, the chairman of the Republican National Committee—Leonard W. Hall."

Big, bald Hall came down the ramp, beaming. As he spoke, he became an interesting study in self-confidence. He talked easily, almost languidly, with his hands in the pockets of his television-blue suit. It was a gentle sales talk. No sweat, no strain.

He spoke of the greatness of President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon, whose pictures, each 10 by 20 feet, hang from one end of the hall. There are no other pictures there.

Democrats Have Spoken

"There is nothing we need say about Adlai Stevenson that Kefauver hasn't already said," Hall

said to laughing approval. "There is nothing that we need say about the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket that Harry Truman hasn't already said."

Gov. Arthur Langlie of Washington, as keynote speaker, was an interesting contrast to Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee, the Democratic keynoter. In effect, it was like the difference between warm Ovaltine and corn liquor.

Langlie got his share of applause but he didn't set the hall on fire. He used none of the thunder and oratorical calisthenics displayed by Clement. Langlie was no spell-binder. He was more like a high school history teacher, earnest, neat, orderly.

FOUR FOREIGNERS AT PBA SESSION

UNIVERSITY PARK, August 19—Two bankers from the Republic of Korea and two Costa Rican bankers were at the Pennsylvania State University Monday for opening day ceremonies at the fifth annual Pennsylvania Bankers Association Summer School, August 19-24. They will join more than 225 Pennsylvania bank personnel who will attend the week-long educational program.

INNOCENT MAN LEAVES PRISON

MEDIA, Pa. (P)—Joseph T. Clancy, who was jailed four years ago for a forgery he didn't commit, was a free man today. He was released yesterday by a judge who observed:

"God moves in strange ways his ends to meet."

Delaware County Court Judge John V. Diggins told the 52-year-old Lansdowne man:

"It is possible you were convicted on false testimony even though you decided to reform, as a punishment for the many years of anxiety you brought to your mother, and that you are being freed because God has decided you have been punished enough."

Judge Diggins had sentenced Clancy to 5 to 15 years in prison four years ago. Clancy, who had a long record of convictions for forgery, was convicted in 1952 of passing five bad checks on the Havertown branch of the Upper Darby National Bank. The defendant, who had spent 26 of the past 29 years in prison, insisted at the time he had reformed after the death of his mother and was innocent of the Havertown charges.

Earlier this year, Norman J. Huber, who had been arrested in Georgia on forgery charges, confessed to the Havertown forgery. He looks enough like Clancy to be his twin and a mixup in identification was responsible for Clancy's false conviction.

Huber, who appeared here to repeat his confession, is to be returned to Atlanta to finish serving a 10-year term in the federal penitentiary there. Judge Diggins held him under $1,000 bail but stipulated that he should not be punished for the Havertown forgeries.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The Florida delegation to the Republican National Convention accepted the California Room of a hotel as its headquarters without a dissenting vote.

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—When Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts gavelled the Republican National Convention to order today, he'll do it with a mallet made from oak from the original North Church steeple in Boston.

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The Oklahoma delegation to the Republican National Convention plans to duck out on politicking tonight and take in a movie. The picture: "Oklahoma!"

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—The Eisenhower sentiment in this Republican National Convention city has even caught on along the lusty Barbary Coast. A dancer who specializes in shedding flimsy wraps winds up wearing—not spangles—but two huge "I like Ike" buttons.

ETHEL MERMAN AROUSES GOP

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—Hey, how about Ethel Merman for vice president?

The gal with the brassy voice might have had the nomination for the asking last night after the two songs she did for the Republican television cabaret. Dick Nixon probably would have voted for her himself.

The delegates had pretty much sat on their hands up to that point. There were a few courtesy demonstrations, neither spontaneous nor unrehearsed. But the main chore was listening to speeches. Then up stood Miss Merman, at the far end of the hall, and the convention was belted awake.

Her great ambition, she told her doting audience, is to sing the Ike song at the inauguration of the next President, and she didn't mean Democrat Adlai Stevenson. "I want to tell you right now," chimed in GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall, "that you have a date for 1957 in Washington, D.C."

loan department, Bank of Costa Rica, San Jose, and Gerardo Echeverria, chief of the loan department, Banco Anglo Costarricense, San Pedro de Montes de Ora, are currently in this country for nine months. They are also the recipients of industrial training grants.

STATE REPORTS $1,500 SAVING PEE'D IN ISSUES TO BE REVIVED

HARRISBURG (P)—The Property and Supplies Department today reported a $1,500 saving on the first purchase under a new system of buying medical supplies.

The new program, resulting from a Justice Department survey of medical purchasing practices, was put into effect Aug. 15. It is designed to trim the state's 10 million dollar a year medicine bill to 9 million. All medical supplies for some 60,000 patients in state institutions and hospitals will be bought under the new regulations.

J.H. Lewis, the department's purchasing supervisor, said the first bid opening resulting in a $1,522 saving was for 20 bottles or 100,000 multi-vitamin capsules.

A Wilkes-Barre vendor representing an Indianapolis manufacturer bid $2,172 to supply the item but a Philadelphia representative a Kalamazoo, Mich., manufacturer er, bid $650 for the contract. Lewis said the latter will be awarded the contract.

The department today sent to pharmacists in state hospitals and institutions the first catalogs of drugs and names of successful low bidders on initial contracts. By Oct. 1 a complete set of catalogs will have been distributed.

John S. Rice, department secretary, expects the "simplified" system will eliminate 75 per cent of the department's paper work in medical purchases. Under the plan medical supply directors refer their needs to a master schedule where they find the name of the low bidder. Then he can order the product directly.

EVERYBODY IS HAPPY AS GOP OPENS SESSION

By SAUL PETT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Republican National Convention opened yesterday with a steal from Ted Lewis.

"Is everyone happy?" boomed National Chairman Leonard Hall from the speaker's platform.

"Yes," the audience roared back. That about concluded debate for the day.

The evening session was no less exciting.

A Gentle Sales Talk

Actor Wendell Corey was master of ceremonies. He introduced the music and the flag demonstrations and then, with a flourish, as though the crowd had never met him before, he announced, "Ladies and gentlemen, the chairman of the Republican National Committee — Leonard W. Hall."

Big, bald Hall came down the ramp, beaming. As he spoke, he became an interesting study in self-confidence. He talked easily, almost languidly, with his hands in the pockets of his television-blue suit. It was a gentle sales talk. No sweat, no strain.

He spoke of the greatness of President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon, whose pictures, each 10 by 20 feet, hang from one end of the hall. There are no other pictures there.

Democrats Have Spoken

"There is nothing we need say about Adlai Stevenson that Kefauver hasn't already said," Hall

said to laughing approval. "There is nothing that we need say about the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket that Harry Truman hasn't already said."

Gov. Arthur Langlie of Washington, as keynote speaker, was an interesting contrast to Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee, the Democratic keynoter. In effect, it was like the difference between warm Ovaltine and corn liquor.

Langlie got his share of applause but he didn't set the hall on fire. He used none of the thunder and oratorical calisthenics displayed by Clement. Langlie was no spell-binder. He was more like a high school history teacher, earnest, neat, orderly.

FOUR FOREIGNERS AT PBA SESSION

UNIVERSITY PARK, August 19 — Two bankers from the Republic of Korea and two Costa Rican bankers were at the Pennsylvania State University Monday for opening day ceremonies at the fifth annual Pennsylvania Bankers Association Summer School, August 19-24. They will join more than 225 Pennsylvania bank personnel who will attend the week-long educational program.

Pil Suk Lee, chief of the management department, The Korean Heung-Up Bank, Ltd., Seoul, and Chong Duck Lee, manager, Shinyong Bank, Chong Heung Bank, Seoul, are presently in this country for a one-year period to study and observe general commercial bank management. They are the recipients of industrial training grants under this nation's program of technical cooperation with other countries.

INNOCENT MAN LEAVES PRISON

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Joseph T. Clancy, who was jailed four years ago for a forgery he didn't commit, was a free man today. He was released yesterday by a judge who observed:

"God moves in strange ways his ends to meet."

Delaware County Court Judge John V. Diggins told the 52-year-old Lansdowne man:

"It is possible you were convicted on false testimony even though you decided to reform, as a punishment for the many years of anxiety you brought to your mother, and that you are being freed because God has decided you have been punished enough."

Judge Diggins had sentenced Clancy to 5 to 15 years in prison four years ago. Clancy, who had a long record of convictions for forgery, was convicted in 1952 of passing five bad checks on the Havertown branch of the Upper Darby National Bank. The defendant, who had spent 26 of the past 29 years in prison, insisted at the time he had reformed after the death of his mother and was innocent of the Havertown charges.

Earlier this year, Norman J. Huber, who had been arrested in Georgia on forgery charges, confessed to the Havertown forgery. He looks enough like Clancy to be his twin and a mixup in identification was responsible for Clancy's false conviction.

Huber, who appeared here to repeat his confession, is to be returned to Atlanta to finish serving a 10-year term in the federal penitentiary there. Judge Diggins held him under $1,000 bail but stipulated that he should not be punished for the Havertown forgeries.

STATE REPORTS $1.500 SAVING PENDING ISSUES TO BE REVIVED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Property and Supplies Department today reported a $1,500 saving on the first purchase under a new system of buying medical supplies.

The new program, resulting from a Justice Department survey of medical purchasing practices, was put into effect Aug. 15. It is designed to trim the state's 10 million dollar a year medicine bill to $9 million. All medical supplies for some 60,000 patients in state institutions and hospitals will be bought under the new regulations.

J.H. Lewis, the department's purchasing supervisor, said the first bid opening resulting in a $1,522 saving was for 20 bottles or 100,000 multi-vitamin capsules.

A Wilkes-Barre vendor representing an Indianapolis manufacturer bid $2.172 to supply the item but a Philadelphia representing a Kalamazoo, Mich., manufacturer, bid $650 for the contract. Lewis said the latter will be awarded the contract.

The department today sent to pharmacists in state hospitals and institutions the first catalogs of drugs and names of successful low bidders on initial contracts. By Oct. 1 a complete set of catalogs will have been distributed.

John S. Rice, department secretary, expects the "simplified" system will eliminate 75 per cent of the department's paper work in medical purchases. Under the plan medical supply directors refer their needs to a master schedule where they find the name of the low-bidder. Then he can order the product directly.

Violent mishaps took the lives of at least 16 persons in Pennsylvania during the weekend. Eleven died on highways and two persons were drowned.

A woman and a 7-year-old boy were killed at Sharon by a tree that fell onto a shelter in Buhl Park during a storm Saturday night. The storm also caused injuries to at least 53 other persons on a path through the Shenango River Valley.

ETHEL MERMAN AROUSES GOP

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Hey, how about Ethel Merman for vice president?

The gal with the brassy voice might have had the nomination for the asking last night after the two songs she did for the Republican television cabaret. Dick Nixon probably would have voted for her himself.

The delegates had pretty much sat on their hands up to that point. There were a few courtesy demonstrations, neither spontaneous nor unrehearsed. But the main chore was listening to speeches. Then up stood Miss Merman, at the far end of the hall, and the convention was belted awake.

Her great ambition, she told her doing audience, is to sing the Ike song at the inauguration of the next President, and she didn't mean Democrat Adlai Stevenson.

"I want to tell you right now," chimed in GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall, "that you have a date for 1957 in Washington, D.C."
